DISEASE GERMS WERE INJECTED WITH SERUM

Physicians in Australia Criticized Following Inquiry Into Deaths of Children

Tragedies in Fight Against Diphtheria in Commonwealth Stir Populace

Sydney, N.S.W., June 14 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters).—That living disease germs, staphylococci, were accidentally injected into the veins of the children by the administration of anti-diphtheria serum is suggested in the report of the Royal Commission which has just completed its inquiry into the deaths of twelve children at Bundaberg, Queensland, last January. The serum was obtained from the Australian Health Department and Premier Stanley Bruce gave the commission, composed of eminent men, a free-hand in investigating the matter. The commission's report states the anti-toxin mixture was contaminated. The commission criticizes the technique of the physicians concerned and puts forward recommendations regarding the future use of serums. The case caused a sensation throughout Australia.

EX-LEADER OF WOMEN DIES

Brief Illness Proves Fatal to Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst in London

London, June 14.—One of the most picturesque figures in the woman suffrage movement, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, died this morning in a London nursing home at the age of sixty-nine. Death came after a comparatively short illness.

Mrs. Pankhurst was the first militant suffragist in efforts to obtain the vote for women in Great Britain. After founding the Women's Social and Political Union with her daughter Christabel, Mrs. Pankhurst started "Votes for Women" agitation by heading a deputation to the House of Commons to demand the vote. Many members of that body were jailed.

JAIL SENTENCES
Afterwards the Women's Freedom League came into being and its adherents adopted militant methods. Holloway Jail was frequently used by the authorities to attempt to check the activities of the women. Mrs. Pankhurst was often in and out of that institution and her last offense brought a sentence of penal servitude. She started a hunger strike and was released before the sentence was completed.

On the outbreak of the World War Mrs. Pankhurst and other militant suffragists in Great Britain joined in support.

REPORT POPE IS ILL IS DENIED

No Basis For Statements Made By Rome Newspaper, Says the Vatican

Rome, June 14.—The Vatican issued an emphatic denial of the statement published in the Rome newspaper Il Brilliante to-day that Pope Pius was suffering from a bad attack of arteriosclerosis which was worrying his entourage. The Rome correspondent of the Associated Press, who called the Vatican to ascertain the truth of the newspaper report, was able to learn the Pontiff enjoys perfect health.

In its report Il Brilliante, which is a Fascist newspaper, said Pope Pius was suffering from arteriosclerosis and had refused to summon a physician. The paper stated the Pontiff was taking longer walks than heretofore, as he said movement alone gave him relief. It was added that he had refused to reduce the number of his audiences or curtail his activities in any way.

London, June 14 (Canadian Press Cable).—The London Star, a Liberal newspaper, commenting to-day on the debate in the Canadian House of Commons last Monday on the Canadian Legation at Tokyo, declares that "although Canada has taken advantage of the right, other Dominions may follow her example, and it is difficult to think the system has not certain risks."

Referring to Premier King's remarks, The Star states the "Canadian Prime Minister seems to think half a dozen representatives could work as well together as a cabinet of eighteen."

Byng Takes Seat In House of Lords

London, June 14 (Canadian Press Cable).—Viscount Byng of Vimy took his seat in the House of Lords yesterday, being sponsored by Lord Lee of Fareham and Lord Hampden. The former Governor-General of Canada refrained from entering the upper House for twenty months because of a dispute over payment of the fees incidental to his elevation in the peerage.

Meanwhile the campaign shifts for to-day to the mainland, where Liberal leaders will gather to-night for the Liberal nominating convention in the Delta Riding. Three Cabinet Ministers Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Acting Premier; Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, and Hon. Dugald Donaghy, Minister of Finance, will attend this gathering to speak with A. D. PRAYER BOOK BILL OPPOSED
Sir William Joynson-Hicks Joins in Debate in British Commons

London, June 14 (Canadian Press Cable).—The House of Commons to-day were a demagogue of gravity as it entered upon the second and final day of debate on the revision of the Prayer Book of the Church of England.

The aged Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York and the Bishops of London and Southwark were prominent among the prelates who looked on from the Peers' Gallery, while the ordinary galleries were crowded.

JOYNSON-HICKS SPEAKS
Sir William Joynson-Hicks, Home Secretary, was greeted with loud cheers when he rose to speak against the revision. He declared he spoke with even greater responsibility than he had in December last, when the first revision was rejected by the House. He stressed his personal unhappiness at differing from his revered leader, Premier Balfour, on any matter, but this question went far beyond ordinances and ceremonies. A definite change of doctrine was concerned, going far beyond the questions of vestments and the like.

BLUE BALLOT WAR LOOMS IN TORY FACTIONS

Argument on Scrutineers Features Ward Three Nominating Meeting

Printed lists of delegates, bluntly expressed fear of partiality by scrutineers and an outburst of criticism of the executive, featured the meeting of Ward Three Conservatives last night to select fifty delegates to the Conservative nominating convention to be held next Tuesday. The meeting attracted 132 men and women to the Conservative headquarters in the Campbell Building, and 115 names were put up for balloting.

Threats of revolt were made when W. S. Morris protested against acceptance by the meeting of scrutineers already appointed by the executive committee.

DEMAND REFUSED
The demand of Mr. Morris that the scrutineers be named from the floor of the meeting was flatly refused by Leonard Tait, president, as was the ultimatum of E. F. Gould that Frank R. Lovell and S. Bell be added to the scrutineers to protect the interests of a large faction present. This refusal was later withdrawn by Mr. Tait and the two nominees were added to the checkers, but not until the meeting resumed, with a show of "sympathy" and "are not satisfied" and a threat from Mr. Gould to put the question to a vote of the meeting.

Macdonald, concluding a two-day trial in the Supreme Court here, awarded the plaintiff, Alice Marie Vandepitte, judgment against Miss Berry for $4,600 to compensate her for injuries she sustained when thrown from her husband's auto. The husband, on the defendant's application, had been joined as a third party to the action.

Miss Berry, on the basis that Vandepitte was equally to blame for the accident, was given judgment against him for $2,300.

FEAR EXPRESS RATE INCREASE

Proposed Increase Would Be Blow to Fruit Men, Says Growers' Head

Increases in express rates proposed by Canadian express companies in an application now before the Railway Commission would deal a severe blow to the fruit industry of British Columbia, R. B. Macdonald, of Vernon, vice-president of the B.C. Fruit Growers' Association, informed the Provincial Government at conferences here.

"If the Railway Commission were to allow the rate increases proposed it would be almost impossible for us to ship our fruit into prairie markets successfully," Mr. Macdonald stated, after he had talked the matter over with Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture.

FILING EVIDENCE
Mr. Macdonald announced that the Fruit Growers' Association already had filed with the Railway Commission evidence to prove not only that an express rate increase would be unjustified, but that reductions in the present rates are needed. This evidence is being submitted through Isaac Pitblado, K.C., of Winnipeg, who will handle the express rate hearing for British Columbia and the three prairie provinces.

While the Railway Commission will come to the Coast shortly, it is understood the express rate hearing will not be held until it returns to Ottawa later.

H. W. Long Testifies at Inquiry in Terminal City Mayor L. D. Taylor "Was Inclined to Let Gambling Run Tag Wild", Says He Wondered if Chief Magistrate's Policy Had Become Known to Underworld

Vancouver, June 14.—"When Mayor L. D. Taylor told me a Chinaman wanted the privilege of operating a gambling place at 54 Cordova Street, I told him if the Chinaman operated he would be pulled the same as the others," declared Chief of Police H. W. Long in the course of his testimony at this morning's session of the Vancouver police inquiry. Under examination by A. H. MacNeill, K.C., commission counsel, the chief admitted the Chinaman was Shue Moy.

The chief declared he was "astounded and annoyed" to learn gambling had spread to "such an extent" in 1927. "I wondered if the mayor's policy had become known to the underworld and had spread as a result," he said.

LOOTERS SHOT IN TIENTSIN

Scenes of Disorder While Southern Chinese Troops Taking Over City

Tientsin, June 14.—Twenty looters were executed in Tientsin yesterday on orders of General Fu Tzu-yi, Shanai province commander, who is in charge of the city, following a night of firing around the city, mostly by retiring Northern Chinese troops, who shot in the air, disturbances occurring in the western suburbs. Sporadic fighting between the gunmen and the police took place in various districts, with numerous casualties.

GUNMEN AT WORK
London, June 14.—A Tientsin dispatch to the London Evening News says the city was the scene of terrible looting and carnage last night during disorders carried on by gunmen following the surrender of the city by the Northern Chinese forces.

The streets along the Pei Ho River were strewn with dead and the feeling in Tientsin was reported tense in fear of a repetition of the outrages.

The thorough defence plans of the former Chinese government, executed excellently, but many bullets fired in the shooting and looting outside fell in the foreign compounds.

In the Chinese city men and women were shot mercilessly. Armed men in all sorts of military clothing killed and looted generally.

At Trial in Vancouver Man Tells How Securities Taken From Safety Vault

Vancouver, June 14.—A. E. Perman, ex-steward of the Vancouver Safety Deposit Vault Company, caused a sensation in police court to-day while being cross-examined by C. S. Arnold, counsel for J. McD. Grosart, charged with the theft of $20,000 worth of bonds belonging to J. McNeely, he admitted having stolen two batches of bonds totaling $13,000 in 1924. Perman stated he had first taken $5,000 worth of bonds from the safety box of a man named Corset, and later, in order to redeem them, had stolen bonds to the amount of $8,000 from J. McNeely's box, having altered keys to give him access.

The $8,000, it was understood, was not returned.

According to Perman, he was custodian of the vaults from 1917 till 1927, and it was during the latter year that Grosart asked him to endeavor to interest some of the clients in a mining company he said, but he failed to do so.

DUMPING DUTY URGED BY B.C.

Government Did Everything Possible to Continue Former Plan, Says Barrow

The Provincial Government did everything possible to secure the continuation of Canadian dumping duties this year, but did not meet with success because the former dumping arrangements were found to be illegal. Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, stated in an interview here, following requests for information on the subject from many fruit growers.

"Our position in this matter is on record," the minister said. "The Provincial Government strongly urged the continuation of the dumping duties, and so far as I know was the only Government represented by a Cabinet minister at the conference which was held on the subject at Ottawa a short time ago."

FOUND ILLEGAL
"The situation apparently is much misunderstood. Actually it was discovered at Ottawa that the dumping duty had been applied last year without proper statutory authority, as the Customs Tariff Act allows for such a duty only on articles carrying an ad valorem tariff. Fruits carry a specific duty, and cannot be made subject to a dumping duty under the law. The matter came up so late in the parliamentary session that it was too late to open the Customs Tariff Act, and apparently there was not sufficient support for such a move. Consequently no power exists for applying the dumping duty on fruits under the law."

World-wide Business of Prince Rupert Cold Storage Plant

By H. F. PULLEN

Frozen fish is sent from Prince Rupert to every country in Europe except Russia, and also to Australia, New Zealand, and the South Sea Islands. This is made possible through the activities of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company, which has in Prince Rupert the largest fish cold storage plant in the world. The huge business it does has been built up since the plant was established seventeen years ago. It has made Prince Rupert known in almost all quarters of the globe, and the firm is in constant communication with many of the great centres every day.

WORLD BUSINESS

The day on which I called there recently, being Thursday, was a quiet one, yet on the manager's desk were telegrams which had arrived that day from Alert Bay, Melbourne, Australia; Seattle, Ketchikan, New York City, Chicago, Toronto and Halifax. This gives some idea of the widespread business done, but perhaps the shipments seen on the dock on the same day ready to go, give an even better idea of the ramifications of Prince Rupert's commerce. There were shipments for Yukon Territory, Vancouver, Ocean Falls, Montreal, New York, Chicago, Oslo, Norway, Hamburg, Germany, Melbourne, Australia, Kansas City, Le Havre, France, and other points. This perhaps shows better than could be done in any other way how general is the distribution of the Prince Rupert product. Some of the fish were being sent in bond, having been purchased from American fishermen that day, been thoroughly cleaned, packed in ice and placed in express refrigerator cars which go out by passenger or fast express train, and a few days later are in the big Eastern American cities.

EUROPEAN SHIPMENTS

European shipments are made mostly by way of the Panama Canal, the development of that route having made possible the placing of frozen Canadian fish on the European market at prices which enable it to compete even with the cheap labor product of European countries. The shipments were chiefly of salmon and halibut, but there was a small percentage of kippered herring, of smoked black cod and of sole, brill or plaice.

Possibly the size of the business may be gauged best by the statement of Col. J. W. Nicholls, comptroller, and in the absence of T. H. Johnson, acting manager, who said that their average output was 25,000,000 pounds a year of fish and 25,000 tons of ice.

We are often told how the Americans control every industry on the coast, yet here is an industry owned and operated and manned almost exclusively by British people. The majority stock in the company is held in England, the management is English, and the large majority of the employees are British. The company has a million and a half dollars' fixed assets, and the manager ments. It is stated that brine freezing of halibut preserves the fish better than any other method, due to the fact that they are frozen quicker and consequently the tissue of the fish is not broken through the formation of ice crystals. The company has recently installed new machinery which gives practically the same results. The fish is frozen in one-third of the time formerly occupied, with excellent results.

Extensive experiments are also being carried on with brine freezing. A plant is equipped with all necessary apparatus for the process, but like all other brine plants it has not yet proved a commercial success for the freezing of large sized fish. For small fish it is successful.

OPERATIONS EXTEND

Up to last year the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company operated a salmon cannery not far from the cold storage plant in Prince Rupert harbor. Many people wondered why they sold it last year, but in view of the failure of the salmon this last season, people are no longer wondering. However, the company still handles large quantities of salmon, either freezing them or shipping them in ice just as is done with the halibut. The radius of operations in connection with this fish is gradually being extended until to-day they get fish from as far as 400 miles south and 500 miles north.

The fish handled in this plant are not all sold fresh or frozen. Some of the fish are salted, some mild cured and some smoked. The smokehouse at the plant was formerly in charge of Jimmy Mitchell, who died about a year ago. An experiment was then tried. His widow was placed in charge and the results have been excellent. Mrs. Mitchell has proved herself a capable head for the department, the only one so managed in North America, it is believed.

Most of the halibut handled by the world—the largest fish cold storage plant and the largest wholesale halibut market.

CITY TRUSTEES FIX SCHOOL FEES

Rate of $100 For High School Tuition of Saanich Pupils Ratified

Rate is Below Net Chargeable Cost But Difference Will Be Absorbed

Saanich pupils attending the Victoria High School for the school year 1928-29 must be paid for at the rate of $100 per head, the City School Board affirmed last night, in a formal resolution supporting the stand taken by the board recently at the Victoria-Saanich trustee conference.

Trustees George Jay, W. C. Moresey, A. C. Pike, J. S. McMillan and Alex. Peden endorsed this action; while Trustee J. L. Beckwith asked to be recorded as against it. Trustee W. T. Straith, who was unable to attend the meeting, sent word that his vote would favor the passage of the $100 fee.

In a letter to the city board last night Saanich trustees urged that the new rate should apply "at the commencement of the school year of 1929, which would not be payable until July 1, 1930. This would take care of any 'adjustment' Saanich might make in regard to the increased rates, it was stated. The city board declined to adhere to this request, on the ground that the increased fee of $100 even for the school term 1928-29 would not be paid until July 1, 1929, and that the change would make no difference to the estimates of either body for this year.

COSTS $102

The service actually cost the city $103 or thereabouts, after the deduction of all changes not properly chargeable against an outside municipality, such as sinking funds, and interest, building and grounds repairs and maintenance, furniture, etc. The city board hopes to make up the balance of the $103 by a decrease in per capita cost this year and next.

If the Saanich trustees decline to agree to the settlement at this figure the City Council has the power to collect the actual cost of the educational facilities extended to Saanich at the close of the school term. Trustee George Jay, chairman of the city board, told the meeting last night. Only in the event of a disagreement between the two boards could the council step in, but if that disagreement came about, then the council had power to act, and the power extended to the collection of the full cost of the tuition advanced.

He regarded the $100 charge as one fair to both the city and Saanich, and the best solution of the problem confronting both bodies, stated Mr. Jay. Trustee Moresey, Pike, McMillan and Peden concurred. The city should be loath to set a hard and fast figure which might shut Saanich out from a further conference if that was desired, commented Trustee J. L. Beckwith, who asked to be recorded against the motion.

The formal resolution striking the rate at $100 per pupil was then carried on the division of five to one. Saanich trustees were notified informally by telephone last night, while holding a meeting concurrently in Saanich.

PENSIONS STUDIED

Superannuation for school employees apart from teachers is being studied by the city board, it was revealed last night, in the passage of a resolution for information from the city solicitor as to what would be the method of procedure in bringing the pension plan into effect for these employees.

The appointment of A. T. Barnett as a special duty officer to police the grounds of the High School and Girls' Central School, between 5 p.m. and 9 p.m., was ratified by the board. Mr. Barnett will be sworn in as a special police officer, and his patrol duties may be varied from time to time.

New flags for the city schools, where required, were authorized by the board, on the recommendation of the finance committee. Some of the flags now flown needed replacing through age, it was intimated.

and comptroller of the company are also on the board of directors.

ORGANIZED IN 1907

The company was first organized in 1907, about the same time as the site for the city of Prince Rupert was chosen. It was recognized even at that time that the terminus of the railway would be the logical centre for a large fish business. However, it was 1910 before the buildings were erected, expecting that trains would be coming from the Atlantic Coast, and on that train there were several express refrigerator cars loaded with fresh halibut for the Eastern market. Prior to that it was shipped through Vancouver.

Originally the company shipped almost 100 per cent halibut, but a market for other fish is being gradually developed in face of a probable curtailment of the halibut supply, until to-day the company deals in every kind of fish offered for sale on the north coast. On the day on which I visited the plant one of the big steam trawlers, similar to those operating in the North Sea off the coast of Great Britain, landed a capacity load of ground fish taken in the neighborhood. This included brill, sole, plaice and codfish, the marketing of which was the result of an experiment during the war when the country was crying for cheap food. The Cold Storage Company yielded to the urge by experimenting in the production of these fish with excellent results. While the demand slackened at the close of the war, it continued in moderate quantities and the demand is steadily increasing. It is predicted by the management of the company that as the supply of other fish slackens the gap will be filled by these, which can be produced cheaply and are the finest obtainable.

EXPLOITING NEW GROUND

The company is continuously engaged in exploiting new ground and new varieties of fish, having in mind the possible depletion of the halibut, as suggested by the investigators who have been engaged under the Halibut Commission and who are still carrying on their studies of conditions on the coast with a view to preserving the supply as far as possible.

Having in view the necessity of keeping quite up-to-date, the company has recently remodelled entirely the plant from an engineering standpoint, so that to-day it is the most modern and economically operated of any in the world.

Take one example of recent development. It is purchased in the open market on the fish exchange. This exchange is operated much the same as a grain exchange and it often does just as much business as the grain exchange in a big city. On arrival the fish are listed with particulars in regard to their age and the location of the fishing grounds where they were taken. His widow was placed in charge and the results have been excellent. Mrs. Mitchell has proved herself a capable head for the department, the only one so managed in North America, it is believed.

IN TOUCH WITH EXCHANGE

The management of the cold storage plant is not represented personally on the "exchange," but John Davey, the general buyer, is all the time in close telephonic communication with them. In order to put the cold storage management in still closer touch with the proceedings a microphone is installed in the exchange with a loud speaker in the manager's room at the plant, so that all that goes on at the exchange is faithfully recorded in the office, even to the sea stories which are so much enjoyed by the various buyers and shippers who are usually present.

The halibut and salmon chickens from five to ten pounds each, medium from ten to eighty pounds and whales over eighty pounds. The prime fish are the mediums, and the chickens and whales are second grades, selling at several cents a pound less than the others. The buyers discourage the marketing of chickens, because so doing depletes the halibut banks. About two-thirds of the average catch will be mediums and the other third chickens or whales, with whales getting steadily fewer each year.

Salmon is not often sold at the exchange except at the beginning of the season. It is usually bought direct from the fishermen at the fishing grounds, the company's packing boat going out and carrying supplies of ice, green clothes and everything needed by the fishermen and bringing back the catch. Naturally there is a good deal of competition for the fish and the fishermen benefit from the increased demand. The company takes fish from the trolliers, from the seiners and from the gillnetters. It employs no salmon fishermen, nor does it control any Oriental licensees, but simply buys the fish on the market. Its employees number from 140 in winter to 160 in summer work at the plant or on the boats. The two resident directors are T. H. Johnson, manager; J. W. Nicholls, comptroller; also J. Boddie is the chief engineer; Robert Blance, marine superintendent, and E. Davidson, head foreman.

THOUSANDS OF VISITORS

Many thousands of tourists visit this plant every year. They are all treated with courtesy by the management and whenever possible are shown through part of the buildings by an employee of the company. There they see all kinds of fish, including a number of freaks. They see the various processes and can get some idea of the magnitude of the work carried on there. The plant is not only a good business asset for Prince Rupert, but also it is the best advertisement the city has. It is something for visitors to remember. It enables Prince Rupert to boast of having two of the largest things in the

PLANE TUNED FOR SEA HOP

Trepassey, Nfld., June 14.—Jubilant at the successful outcome of their first test flight early today, the crew of the Pomeroy tri-motored monoplane Friendship definitely set 1 o'clock Eastern Standard Time (10 o'clock to-night Victoria time) as the hour of their take-off for Europe by way of the Azores Islands.

WOMAN STRUCK AND GAGGED

Burglar Flees From Vancouver Apartment After Injuring Lodger

Vancouver, June 14.—Declaring she was knocked down and gagged by a prowler in her room last night, Mildred MacLaren, St. Helen's Rooms, Granville Street, Vancouver, reported details of the occurrence to Detectives J. Cameron and D. Robertson, who answered a call at 11 p.m. to her suite.

Miss MacLaren said she had left her room at 9 p.m. and gone to a bathroom on the same floor. On her return, she said, she discovered a man ransacking her room. When she screamed he struck her on the head with some blunt instrument and then gagged her with a scarf and towel. The man fled and her plight was discovered by other lodgers nearly two hours after the attack, she said.

Police found evidence the room had been ransacked, but the only article missing was a leather purse, another purse with money under a pillow having been left untouched.

Of late years Mrs. Fankhurst had been a constitutionalist. At the time of her death she was the Conservative member for Whitechapel for the Commons. She was also engaged in the peaceful and prosperous occupation of running a tearoom. Her daughter Sylvia recently was reported to have at least fifty per cent of all immigration from Britain; that persons who are not prepared to accept Canadian citizenship in peace and war should not be encouraged to come to Canada; that every effort should be made to prevent the location of non-English-speaking peoples in large blocks in Canada, and that "1000 passages to British boys and girls, when accompanied by parents or guardians, should be confined to those who are seventeen years old or over. The report also recommends a complete Dominion survey of the immigration and settlement problem, the barring of Orientals from Canada's shores and the banning of communist literature and publications in this country.

KNOWN IN TORONTO

Toronto, June 14.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst resided in Toronto for a time in 1921, when she came here to assist in the work of the National Association for the Prevention of Venereal Diseases. During her stay she became well-known to many prominent Toronto women, who of late years expressed regret at her death in London. While in Toronto Mrs. Pankhurst adopted four Belgian children. On leaving here she went to live in Victoria, B.C.

Mrs. Pankhurst lived in Victoria for several years, residing on Hollywood Crescent. When here, she was accompanied by the three little Belgian girls, who were orphaned when she had adopted. Relegating politics to the background during her stay in Canada, Mrs. Pankhurst took up the cause of social hygiene and gave a series of lectures throughout the Dominion on that subject. She left here some years ago for England.

The convention congratulated Premier MacLean on the financial position of the Province. The Liberal convention here at Anyox unanimously named H. R. Kemp for member, to contest Atlix Riding. NORTH IS ACTIVE

At the moment the North is the most active centre of the campaign. Two members of the Government, Premier MacLean and Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, are touring Northern districts, after speaking at Prince Rupert last night, when Mr. Pattullo was renominated for that city. The Premier is starting today on a swing through Skeena, Omineca, Fort George and Cariboo, before returning to the Coast about June 20. Before going to Prince Rupert yesterday he was given a warm welcome in the Atlix Riding.

PRAYER BOOK BILL OPPOSED

ACTION CRITICIZED

The Minister said that his action in recently writing a book opposing the revised Prayer Book had been criticized by the Bishop of Manchester, who alleges that while holding an official position in the Government, he had written a partisan book.

"Nowhere at all in my book," declared Sir William, "is my official position mentioned. I wrote it as an individual member of Parliament. No possibility of office would keep me silent on this matter."

Sir William scouted the idea that "Was the Reformation only of domestic concern to the church. With the Reformation only of domestic concern," he asked. "Let them ask the free churches."

CHURCH DRIFTING

It was the steady drift on the part of so many clergy to materialistic ideas and pre-reformation doctrines which he was fighting against, Sir William said.

The book in its essence remained the

"Why Not A Springier Tire Cord?" They Said

..... AND THEY STARTED ONE OF THE EPIC ADVENTURES OF THE TIRE INDUSTRY

FOR weeks test car after test car swirled up to the door of the Goodyear laboratories to leave its tires for examination. An eager group of engineers watched each tire for confirmation of a new idea which had been developing in their minds. And in hundreds of tires they found it.

"Goodyear treads are too good," they reported. "The Goodyear carcass is better than ever. But the Goodyear tread is far outwearing it. Build a carcass as good as the tread and you will add several thousand miles to the life of Goodyear Tires."

In that report lies the genesis of SUPERTWIST Cords.

The story of SUPERTWIST reads like an Odyssey of industry. Goodyear scientists started with only the need for a better tire carcass. And their search led them along strange by-ways of science.

Months of experiment found the answer in tire cords of greater elasticity—tire cords which would "give" more to blows of the road—stretch instead of breaking—recover like rubber ropes after stretching.

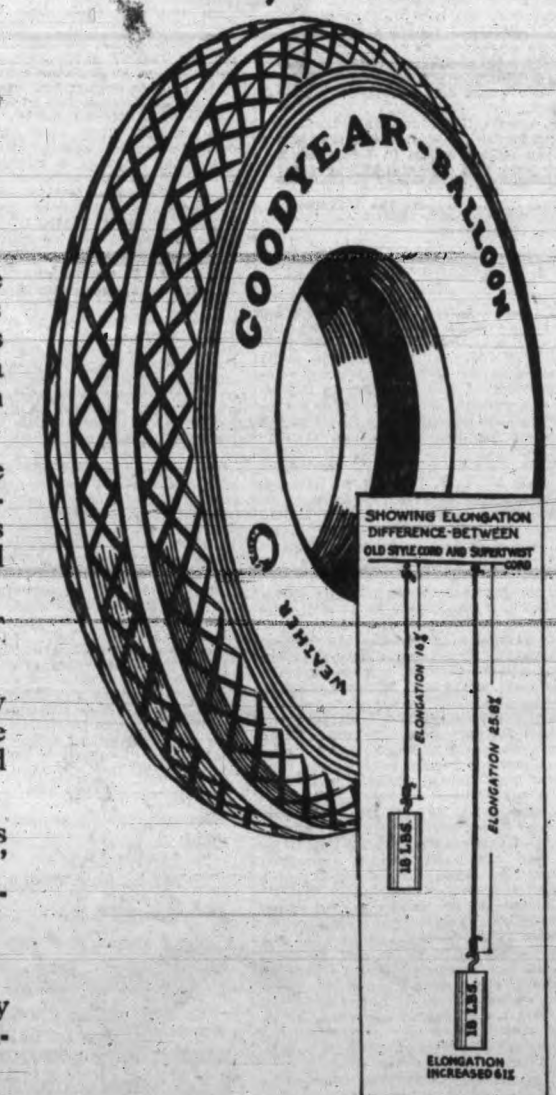

But there was no such cord on the market.

Goodyear scientists studied cord-making. Finally they produced a cord with 61% more stretch than old-style cords—SUPERTWIST Cord.

Then to protect the quality of this new cord, Goodyear bought cord mills—and today Goodyear makes SUPERTWIST Cords in its own mill at St. Hyacinthe, Que.

All this that you may enjoy the greater mileage which SUPERTWIST Cords give to Goodyear Tires. Study the chart here which shows how much greater is the stretch of SUPERTWIST. All Goodyear Tires are made with SUPERTWIST Cords.

NOMINATION CLAIM

Managers for Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, now claim he will receive more than 700 votes on the first ballot for the nomination for the presidency.

After the presidential nominees have been named an adjournment will be taken to look over the field of vice-presidential possibilities. Dawes was the chief upshot of the speculation centred to-day.

Opening the proceedings, Mr. Tait announced that no person would be permitted to place in nomination more than ten names. This decision came as a blow to a large element armed with blue tickets setting out fifty persons pledged to support, if elected as delegates, the renomination of the four Victoria members in the Legislature. Messrs. Hayward, Hinchliffe, Twigg and Lyons.

The situation was promptly met by the strategists of the faction, who got together while the official ward chief-tickets were calling their selections, divided the blue list up into five sections and so secured the formal acceptance of their slate of delegates.

When the ballots were issued suspicion again flared momentarily. Mr. Tait being asked to definitely state the number of ballots issued and to give assurances that all had been initiated by him personally.

BLUE TICKETS EVERYWHERE

The profusion of blue tickets caused considerable comment, which was increased when Mr. Gould pressed to state how many copies of the slate had been issued, said more than 2,000 tickets were in circulation distributed around the streets as well as at the meeting.

Tallying of the ballots continued until daylight this morning, resulting in a decisive win for the faction favoring renomination of Messrs. Hayward, Hinchliffe, Twigg and Lyons. With few exceptions all names on the blue ticket were elected as delegates.

VANCOUVER POLICE CHIEF TELLS COMMISSION SPREAD OF GAMBLING AMAZED HIM

time and would order me to get after the major crime."

In reply to a question from Mr. MacNeill, Chief Long admitted Mayor Taylor had complained to him about officers' breaking in the door at Joe Colona's disorderly place.

"But he knew what kind of a place that was and why the door had been broken?" asked Mr. MacNeill.

"I presume he did," was the reply.

PLAN NOT APPROVED

Asked if he recollected Inspector John Jackson telling Detective McLeod and Grant in his own office that they had better leave the gambling situation alone, the chief replied that he did.

"You did not agree that it should be left alone?" asked Mr. MacNeill.

"Certainly not," replied Chief Long. Vancouver, June 14.—The answer to an important question asked of Chief of Police H. W. Long in the witness stand at the police inquiry this morning may produce a sensation later in the investigation. It is rumored.

Under cross-examination by G. G. McGeer, K.C., counsel for Police Commissioner T. W. Fletcher, the chief was requested to tell Commissioner R. S. Lennie "if you believe protection money was paid to anyone in regard to gambling houses."

The session was adjourned before the chief replied.

YESTERDAY'S EVIDENCE

At yesterday afternoon's session of the inquiry Detective Rod McLeod and subordinate officers at police headquarters had not supported Chief H. W. Long as they should have done. Two officials, Deputy Chief Dan Leath-bridge and Inspector John Jackson, were particularly mentioned by McLeod in this respect. The deputy chief, he said, had "shied" himself behind the office of the chief. The detective declared Jackson's attitude in saying Detective McLeod and Grant had better leave the gambling situation alone was an example of the support given by that official.

While praising Chief Long as an honest upright man, McLeod declared that official was not a "police officer."

Many of the letters said the fact that Pacific Milk is packed in the Province made friends for it among the people here. Of course we were glad to hear this. One lady wrote at length about what local industry is doing for her family. She has a family and four sons. The family has lived three years in British Columbia and every dollar that has come into the home has been received from employment in plants turning out manufactured articles.

FREIGHT RATES AND BUSINESS

BY THE TIME THE SEASON CLOSES
At the end of next month it is expected that at least 80,000,000 bushels of grain will have passed through the Port of Vancouver to the markets of the world. This will be approximately 30,000,000 bushels in excess of the amount which our neighbors handled in the 1923-1924 season.

No reference to Vancouver's port development would be complete without a brief history of the principal contributory movement—the reduction of freight rates on grain coming westward. It will be recalled that in 1921 the commercial interests of the Province requested the provincial Government to conduct an application to the Board of Railway Commissioners for the removal of allegedly unjust discrimination. The Province won its first victory in the following year, and in each of the years 1923, 1925 and 1927 it has won further victories. The following table explains the progress thus made:

In 1921 the rate on grain from Calgary to Vancouver was	31
In 1922 rate reduced to	25
In 1923 rate reduced to	22½
In 1925 rate reduced to	21
In 1927 rate reduced to	20

On the basis of an estimated grain movement through Pacific Coast ports in the season now closing of 85,000,000 bushels the saving to shippers as a result of grain rate reductions between 1922 and 1928 will amount to approximately $16,000,000. This takes no account of reductions on other commodities as a result of the removal of fifty per cent. of the mountain differential in 1922, with reductions in commodity rates of approximately $2,500,000 per annum from 1923 to 1928, which would bring the gross total saving to shippers to something like $30,000,000. All it cost the Province to obtain these benefits for British Columbia business was about $160,000. The benefits, of course, continue. The Province's bill has been paid.

As this movement of grain westward grows Victoria will share in the business. In fact the time is not far off when it will be necessary to use all the Pacific Coast ports in the distribution of Canada's annual crop to the markets of the world. If it had not been for the vigorous campaign which the provincial Government put up, only a fraction of this business would have come British Columbia's way.

A GREAT JOURNALIST

EASTERN NEWSPAPERS TO HAND
contain tributes to the late John R. Bone, managing editor of The Toronto Star for twenty-one years, who passed away suddenly last week.

Mr. Bone joined the staff of The Toronto Star in 1900 as a reporter, and seven years later became managing editor. During that period The Star grew from small beginnings to become the most widely-circulated newspaper in Canada, its daily distribution being now 175,000 copies. Its growth in circulation and influence furnish their own commentary on the manner in which it has been conducted. In the making of this great newspaper Mr. Bone played a dominant part and his death will be a serious loss to it. Among Canadian newspapermen he was highly esteemed for his many fine personal qualities, and the numerous expressions of regret over his passing which were received by The Star from eminent journalists in New York and London show how highly he had risen in the appreciation of his colleagues in the newspaper world abroad. As a leading executive in a journal which every day is read by probably half a million people he had exceptional responsibilities which he discharged with wisdom and ability. He was a great journalist in every way.

GERMANY'S NEW GOVERNMENT

AS WAS GENERALLY EXPECTED, THE
Social-Democratic Party of Germany—which corresponds to the Liberal Party in Canada—has been called upon to form the next government as a result of the gains which it made in the recent general elections. Former Chancellor Hermann Mueller has been asked by President von Hindenburg to undertake the task, the resignation of Dr. Wilhelm Marx, who headed the Coalition Cabinet, having been accepted.

The commanding position which the Socialists occupy, as compared with their strength in the last House, will be observed in the following table:

	1928	1924
Social Democrats (Socialists)	182	131
German Nationalists (Monarchists)	73	103
Centrists (Catholic and Republican)	62	69
Communists	44	51
People's Party (Dr. Stresemann)	25	32
Democrats	23	17
Peasants League	16	19
Bavarian People's Party	16	22
Minor Parties	40	22

It will be recalled that the Nationalists appealed for support at the polls on a policy of antipathy to the Locarno pacts and the reparations settlements. It cost them forty seats and proved to the rest of the world that the German people are solidly behind the republic and the obligations which it has assumed. It also showed that the 4,500,000 voters who were children when the war ended have no hankering, as one commentator puts it, for "the tinsel of an imperial past."

THE "LIGHT WORD"

THE LONDON STAR, CONSISTENT
in its habit of taking a dig at Canada on every possible occasion, pretends to be alarmed, over the Canadian policy of sending representatives to foreign capitals. It says that "nobody in England would be inclined to agree that the control of our foreign policy should be left to such a body—a group of British and Dominion representatives." The risk of a "light word" which might cause friction with a foreign country, it concludes, "is immensely increased when to the British minister is added a group of representatives."

The Star need not worry about Canada. Her representatives can be depended upon to avoid the "light word" which might cause friction with a foreign country. It should address itself to the government at Westminster. It is less than six years since the present Chancellor of the Exchequer—without the knowledge of the Foreign Secretary of that time—sent his famous cable to Canada with an invitation to this country to send troops to Chanak. The same Premier whom The Star chides for his policy of sending representatives to foreign capitals was then in control at Ottawa and was responsible for the wise decision which inspired many much more influential newspapers in Great Britain than The Star to congratulate Canada for her refusal to be stamped. The "light word" will not come from a Canadian minister. The record of Europe, however, has more such "light words" in it than that of all the other continents combined.

HER DREAM CAME TRUE

MRS. EMMELINE PANKHURST, WHO passed to her long rest this morning in a London nursing home after a comparatively short illness, will stand out in history as one of the great women of her generation.

Women the world over recognize the debt they owe to the first militant suffragist, for it was the fight for equal franchise which the late Mrs. Pankhurst and a few stalwarts commenced nearly twenty years ago that resulted in the removal of the discrimination against women in this regard in many countries. People often scoffed at these pioneers. Mrs. Pankhurst was the special target for a good deal of derision. Nothing deterred her. She spent many days and nights in Holloway jail. A sentence of penal servitude was brought to a conclusion by the serious effects which a hunger strike had upon her health. When the women's suffrage movement had reached its peak in respect of organization, when the arguments which its leaders advanced were beginning to influence the public at large, the war broke out and a truce was called. Just as she had thrown all her energy into the movement which she had at heart, so did Mrs. Pankhurst put her shoulder to the wheel of national service. Near riots ceased; more vital issues were at stake.

The part which the women of Britain took in the war, however, was the deciding factor in influencing Parliament to recognize their service in the form of the vote. Women of thirty could cast a ballot after 1918. Mrs. Pankhurst lived to see her dream realized.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

MARCONI ON WORK

By Bruce Catton

Only the feeble-minded or the prematurely old stop and abandon their life's interest for the sake of idleness, according to William Marconi, inventor of wireless telegraphy.

Marconi himself has few idle moments. He has laboratories in Italy, in England, on his yacht Electra, and in America where he is now visiting.

We know a man of seventy who owned a little store where anything might be bought, from drygoods to water faucets. He retired, sold out and moved to "a better climate." In two months he was back and is negotiating for the purchase of his old place.

"Every day here," he said, "people would drop in to buy some little thing and say hello. The kids would want a football. Then they came around for a lawnmower. Then their kids would come in for candy. I've seen three generations grow up here and I know them all."

"When I sold out I needed a rest. A week's rest was really all I needed, because after that I thought I would go crazy looking for some of the old friends to talk to, and trying to find something for my hands to do."

"A Wall Street broker sold his seat on the exchange. After three months he was back and bought his old membership at a higher price. The clamor, the talk, the excited trading had become as much a part of him as the trolley is to the trolley car. He found that without it he could go no further."

The wireless has become a part of Marconi's life. It is his child—he is watching it grow up "into the lawnmower age." It is the same with Edison and electricity, with Ford and his automobile, and so on, to countless others. John D. Rockefeller apparently has retired, but in Wall Street they know differently. For they have traced the touch of the great oil dealer through numerous recent transactions.

When we lose interest in our work, we are losing a vital part of our beings. For our work is what we are.

A THOUGHT

But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night.—1 Peter iv. 3.

There is truth in Jesus which is terrible, as well as truth that is soothing; terrible, for He shall judge as well as Savior.—Henry Melville.

BRIDGE MADE EASY

by W.W. Wentworth

(Abbreviations: A—ace; K—king; Q—queen; J—jack; X—any card lower than 10).

INITIAL NO TRUMP BIDS
When you hold three cards in a suit, no matter how small, the danger of the opponents making more than four tricks in that suit is greatly minimized, the probabilities being that the cards are fairly distributed among all the players.

From this we deduce the rule that it is inadvisable to bid a no trump initially if blank in a suit or when making a singleton, or worthless doubleton in one of the suits.

When this is clear, it becomes equally self-evident that if you hold two suits blank, or two suits with singletons, or two suits with worthless doubletons, on any such holding, you ought not to bid a no trump.

A suit is mathematically and surely stopped when it contains the Ace, or any of the following:

K Q
K J 10
Q J 10
J 10 9 8

For the purpose of bidding an initial trump, a mathematically sure stop is extremely helpful, but it is not absolutely necessary. If, however, you were to postpone bidding a no trump to a position where you could not stop suits mathematically sure stop, you would be passing up many a hand out of which you might reasonably make a small profit.

For the purpose of bidding an initial no trump, the following may be considered probable stoppers as distinguished from the sure stoppers previously listed:

K X
Q J X
J 10 X X
J 10 X X X

Every sure stopper is obviously a probable stopper, but every probable stopper is not a sure stopper. Stoppers in three suits alone would not justify an initial no trump. You also must hold some high cards and the hand must be worth at least two quick tricks. As an illustration, when you hold:

Q J 10
Q J 10
Q J 10
J 10 X X

you have three suits stopped. The hand, however, is not worth two quick tricks and you therefore have no bid.

If you hold:

Spades A X X
Hearts A X X
Diamonds K X X
Clubs 3 2 X X

your hand contains two and one-half quick tricks with three suits safely stopped. Yet there are many players who assert this is too weak a holding on which to bid a no trump.

TENT CATERPILLARS

To the Editor:—Please allow me a few remarks on this pest. The present active stage is nearly closed that, except in a very unusual case, it is not advisable to use the poison spray recommended for their control. Their length will soon be such that they will be sheltered from under eaves, in houses, fences, rocks and old trees. The insecticide, egg-laying moth into which the caterpillars change while in the cocoon, is the real spreader of the pest. These moths are fragile and have a brief existence, but they are capable of traveling a considerable distance before they lay their eggs and die. These egg clusters deposited on twigs and branches of trees and safely sealed against weather, are quite conspicuous. Each one hatches out the 200 or more insects that compose a tent. Mischief oil sprays applied during the winter will prevent some of these eggs from hatching, but the standard strength it will not give complete control. The worst year of the cycle is expected next year, and it will be very advisable to use the winter spray with the lead arsenate spray as soon as the insects hatch, which will be early in April.

No real insect control will ever be possible until civic and municipal authorities change their present attitude. "Leave everything to nature" is all right so long as you have nothing personal to lose. The attitude has allowed many imported pests to establish themselves. The strawberry weevil is responsible for the loss of one-third of the present crop of strawberries. Gooseberries and currants are not grown because of the maggot that eats into the fruit. Leaf rollers are so bad in places that some of our gardens are the border that children catch them by the quart for sale to the control board.

A conservative American journal, devoted to the outdoors, stated that losses in the United States in 1926 from insect pests was over one billion dollars, and the loss in 1927 was $1,000,000,000. FRED BENNETT, Burnside Road, Strawberry Vale, June 12, 1928.

A CHALLENGE TO MR. DAVIE

To the Editor:—I wish to announce to the Conservatives of the Cowichan Newstead constituency that I am willing to withdraw my name from nomination in the coming Provincial election, where I had intended to run as an Independent Conservative, and to support the campaign funds of the two old parties, Liberal and Conservative.

This offer of withdrawal is contingent on C. F. Davis doing likewise, and both candidates giving guarantees to this effect; and with a good united and loyal party there should be no difficulty in getting a good candidate to come forward and take both our places.

The only commitment I have so far promised if elected is that I will support the Cowichan Lake Flume scheme, "top up" manufactured in British Columbia. This is an economic necessity in order to be able to market the enormous waste now left lying in the flume, the other expense that arises after paying legitimate election expenses the surplus will be divided into two equal parts, one to be handed over to ex-service men's relief fund, the other half divided between the three local hospitals.

I should like to have the above offer of withdrawal accepted or not by June 16, and will mail a copy of this letter to The Cowichan Leader, Ladysmith Chronicle, Daily Province, Evening Times and Daily Colonist.

Further, as Dr. Toimie has been kept informed of the material circumstances from the commencement of this dispute between Mr. Davie and myself I would like to suggest that he hold an inquiry, and see if I am a Conservative, or what I am, if not, I only bolster up my claims to being one by an old constitution and a membership card signed by the author of the newly-manufactured constitution.

I should like to explain what these political "machines" are, and how they can be broken if not properly used. When Mr. Davie was elected in 1924 he was credited with being the organizer of the best machine in the Province, but unfortunately he allowed himself to give a vote that he was never able to explain, and as his machine only consisted of very limited number amongst his many supporters, it was no trouble to get another machine that would equal it in time; it is no secret that both rival machines combined held the sway by less than one per cent of the voters; when Dr. Toimie was here he will remember what a very small meeting he addressed. The reason for this was, both wings of the Conservative kept a truce in his honor, and neither side organized. In passing I can say that no troublemaker can upset any association if it is conducted on business like and proper lines. It is only when an association is run on the core that this can be done.

In The Vancouver Daily Province, May 23, the editor concluded his article on this subject by saying, "The campaign funds of both parties need cleaning up." And as it is useless to expect that our politicians will do any cleaning up, because they must have these funds to elect themselves, therefore it will be found that I am taking the only practical method of doing this, by making anti-campaign funds my main platform in this election, and though most of our present representatives have thick and tough hides, the voters will find they have very tender consciences when asked about the source of their entertainment funds.

In conclusion I may say that I have no wish for public life, so I hope the Conservatives will be able to join together and find some decent man to represent them here. I might add that if I change my mind about entering public life, the next constituency is also open to me to contest, on the same platform and using the same arguments. I had prepared for here. There I will find Mrs. Smith and Mr. R. H. Pooley championing their respective political machines, with the aid of campaign funds collected mostly from the same secret and tainted sources.

A Surprising Circular

(From The Toronto Star.)

A dispatch from Ottawa in The Financial Post tells of there having been passed about from hand to hand a circular which arouses much interest. It is a copy of a "confidential" circular sent out by the Department of Overseas Trade of the British Government, probably to all agents and trade commissioners for their information, and perhaps to a wider list. The "confidential" circular runs as follows:

Department of Overseas Trade, (Confidential) April 25, 1928

(CANADIAN PRESS)
The officer-in-charge of His Majesty's trade commissioner's office at Winnipeg informs the department of overseas trade that an announcement has recently been made to the effect that The Regina Leader, the principal morning paper in the city, was being acquired by the Armadale Corporation of Toronto.

The stock of this corporation is owned in equal parts by the following: J. W. Sifton, Winnipeg, Man.; W. Sifton, Mallorytown, Ont.; Harry Sifton, Toronto, Ont.; Clifford Sifton, J. J. Toronto, Ont.; Victor Sifton, Toronto, Ont.

The Regina Leader controlled The Regina Post, The Saskatchewan Phoenix and The Saskatchewan Star. Control of these papers now passes also to the Armadale Corporation.

In effect, the above announcement implies that the four principal papers in Saskatchewan are now under the same control as The Manitoba Free Press, an organ which, in public estimation at any rate, has been the particular champion of Canadian nationalism.

This is a curious circular for a department of the British Government to send out. What was the idea? And whose idea was it? Why should "confidential" information concerning one or more newspapers be sent out to trade agents in this country and elsewhere by the British Department of Overseas Trade? Is it done with the object of endeavoring to influence advertising and keep it away from the newspapers indicated?

The Manitoba Free Press will not object to the bearing upon the Canadian angle and they go on doing so unthinkingly, as a rule, of the perfectly silly aspersions made against them by some of their rivals in business who seem to imagine that a newspaper cannot have a robust Canadianism without desiring to sever British connection. Nothing could be sillier than this talk of separation against newspapers that are doing pioneer work in a new and better relation between the dominion and Britain—a new relation that will stand the strain of the future as the now vanishing colonial relation never could have done. Neither The Star nor The Manitoba Free Press has suffered in the least from the misrepresentations made of them by rival newspapers. They are too well known in their own right to be so easily injured by such misrepresentations. But it would seem from the sending out of this confidential circular, that the British Government is not only influenced by the flunkey newspapers here which seek to make it appear that Canadian patriotism is necessarily antagonistic to British connection. Which, of course, is the very reverse of being true.

science when asked about the source of their entertainment funds.

In conclusion I may say that I have no wish for public life, so I hope the Conservatives will be able to join together and find some decent man to represent them here. I might add that if I change my mind about entering public life, the next constituency is also open to me to contest, on the same platform and using the same arguments. I had prepared for here. The officer-in-charge of His Majesty's trade commissioner's office at Winnipeg informs the department of overseas trade that an announcement has recently been made to the effect that The Regina Leader, the principal morning paper in the city, was being acquired by the Armadale Corporation of Toronto.

The stock of this corporation is owned in equal parts by the following: J. W. Sifton, Winnipeg, Man.; W. Sifton, Mallorytown, Ont.; Harry Sifton, Toronto, Ont.; Clifford Sifton, J. J. Toronto, Ont.; Victor Sifton, Toronto, Ont.

The Regina Leader controlled The Regina Post, The Saskatchewan Phoenix and The Saskatchewan Star. Control of these papers now passes also to the Armadale Corporation.

In effect, the above announcement implies that the four principal papers in Saskatchewan are now under the same control as The Manitoba Free Press, an organ which, in public estimation at any rate, has been the particular champion of Canadian nationalism.

This is a curious circular for a department of the British Government to send out. What was the idea? And whose idea was it? Why should "confidential" information concerning one or more newspapers be sent out to trade agents in this country and elsewhere by the British Department of Overseas Trade? Is it done with the object of endeavoring to influence advertising and keep it away from the newspapers indicated?

The Manitoba Free Press will not object to the bearing upon the Canadian angle and they go on doing so unthinkingly, as a rule, of the perfectly silly aspersions made against them by some of their rivals in business who seem to imagine that a newspaper cannot have a robust Canadianism without desiring to sever British connection. Nothing could be sillier than this talk of separation against newspapers that are doing pioneer work in a new and better relation between the dominion and Britain—a new relation that will stand the strain of the future as the now vanishing colonial relation never could have done. Neither The Star nor The Manitoba Free Press has suffered in the least from the misrepresentations made of them by rival newspapers. They are too well known in their own right to be so easily injured by such misrepresentations. But it would seem from the sending out of this confidential circular, that the British Government is not only influenced by the flunkey newspapers here which seek to make it appear that Canadian patriotism is necessarily antagonistic to British connection. Which, of course, is the very reverse of being true.

In conclusion I may say that I have no wish for public life, so I hope the Conservatives will be able to join together and find some decent man to represent them here. I might add that if I change my mind about entering public life, the next constituency is also open to me to contest, on the same platform and using the same arguments. I had prepared for here. There I will find Mrs. Smith and Mr. R. H. Pooley championing their respective political machines, with the aid of campaign funds collected mostly from the same secret and tainted sources.

YOUR BABY and MINE

for Mother's Mind and Body

Editorial will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies. Children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to office will bring a personal reply.

FATHER OFTEN SHATTERS BABY'S ROUTE

The complaint which meets these eyes at frequently is that of the mother-in-law who makes dauntless life miserable by deriding and finding her unfamiliar methods of balance. Grandmother scoffs at regularity of feeding, reminding daughter that "she" was fed whenever she could. Despite her daughter's protests, she insists upon giving baby tempting morsels of food in her own plate or the family table. If she is helping take care of baby, so she pleads, she is going to do in "her own way."

It is enough for the conscientious mother when grandmother proves obdurate. It is well high tragedy when the non-conformist is the best own dad. And don't think this is uncommon.

The man who would wither his wife with scorn was she to offer a suggestion on how his business should be run, the very one who will wither out constipation, wipe out the good effect of the mother's whole week in one hour with the baby at night, or half a day on Sunday. If the baby is used, a quiet, sane, little handling father in make a nervous, tired, howling demon of him in a half-hour of play.

Suppose the baby does apparently shout a glee when he is tossed in the air, bounced on the paternal knee, or tickled to the point of hysteria? Does any parent imagine that this will have no effect on him later, and that this merry-go-round of emotion baby is going to lie down quietly and go to sleep, even if it happens to be sleepy time? Doesn't he see the result of this over-excitement later when baby vomits his dinner, wakes up and cries, or rather screams, and can't go back to sleep, but professes playing, or tosses restlessly all night, whimpering and fretting? He does, if he can trace any line between cause and effect.

Also there are fathers with loud booming voices and rough muscular hands which, even if they do not mean it, bruise and crush tender flesh when they handle the baby. One father whose baby jumped and cried whenever he spoke to him remained stubbornly insistent that the "kid would have to get used to him." Such a short-sighted policy! For how about father getting used to the "kid's" ways until such a time as loud noises and rough handling would have no such power to disturb a nervous baby?

If a baby cries when father plays with him, if he grows excited and hysterical, there is something wrong, and only a nit-wit father would continue such practices however much he may enjoy them. If father can't be helpful and stand out of the way when mother is trying to do the best for the baby, he is a poor father, and that is being very mild about it, isn't it?

Mrs. McCoy Jameson Presents Pupil In Successful Recital

At her studio, 1001 Foul Bay Road, Mary McCoy Jameson presented her pupil, Isabel C. Crawford, in recital last evening before a large audience of fellow students and friends.

The rooms were delightfully decorated with masses of gold and purple lilies, and Miss Crawford was assisted by Miss Olga Hare, A.T.C.M. pianist, pupil of Marion Heming, who was heard in Brahms Rhapsodie in G Minor; "Love Waltz" (Moszkowski), "Valse Andalous" (MacDowell), and who gave as an encore, enthusiastically, "Valse Andalous" by Brahms, "Mazurka" by Chopin, and "Valse Andalous" by MacDowell. A.T.C.M. gave excellent support as accompanist throughout the evening, and she and Miss Hare were the recipients of colonial bouquets. The programme of songs by Miss Crawford was carefully selected to bring out the beauty of her pure lyric soprano voice, the sweetness of which was enhanced by her clear diction and enunciation. Her first group included, "Oh, Had I Just a Little" (Händel), "Oh, Sleep, Why Dost Thou Leave Me?" and "Of Flowers the Fairest" (Bach). The second group: "Summer" (Chaminade), "Who Is Sylvia?" (Shubert), "The Lorelei" (Lütz), won warm applause, and was followed with "Bide Me Discourse" (Bishop), "Cherry Ripe" (Horne), "Orpheus With His Lute" (Sullivan), in which group the singularly liquid qualities of the fresh young voice were very marked. "Candle-light Time" (Cokeridge-Taylor), "A Birthday" (Woodman), "The Blackbird" (Cyril Scott), "Song of the Open" (La Forge), were much appreciated, and Miss Crawford responded with two encore numbers, "You in a Gondola" and "Call of the Oyster Shell." Miss Crawford, who has been pupil of Mary McCoy Jameson for the past four years, was presented by her colleagues in the studio with a beautiful basket of flowers, and several other bouquets were given her during the programme. The Knabe grand piano, used throughout the evening, was loaned by the Willis Piano Co.

Among those present were: Mrs. Brian Drake, Madame Prieswerck, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walsh, Mr. Ira Dilworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. IMPORTANT.—In preparing feeding mixtures it is imperative that all utensils, bottles, nipples, etc., should be sterilized in boiling water before using. Use a dry spoon in removing contents from the can, and in measuring be careful to pour from can to spoon, allowing the milk in the spoon to level itself. Repeat this procedure with every spoonful measured, using the same spoon every time. This will insure accurate measurement and produce the best results.

DIET FOR CHILD DURING THE SECOND YEAR

Usually after the twelfth month, the mother should select a diet schedule. Every new article of food should be carefully prepared, and given at first in very small quantities. All meals are to be given regularly, with nothing between meals. With many children this expansion of the diet list is attended with considerable difficulty. They are thoroughly satisfied with milk, and refuse all other forms of nourishment. In such cases, withhold the milk until the more solid articles of food have been eaten. If both are given at the same time, the child will prefer the milk and when he has finished drinking it he will refuse the solid food. The following diet schedule will permit the mother to select a suitable meal from the foods listed. It is never advisable to make a change in diet during very hot weather.

NOTE: One teaspoonful of EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK added to one ounce of boiled water results in a mixture equivalent in nutritive value to whole milk. Whenever the word milk appears in the following diet, EAGLE BRAND should be diluted accordingly.

12th TO 15th MONTH—FIVE MEALS DAILY

7 A.M.—Oatmeal, barley, or wheat jelly, one to two tablespoonfuls in 6 or 8 ounces of milk. Stale bread and butter, or rusk and butter.

9 A.M.—The juice of one orange.

11 A.M.—Scraped raw beef, one to three tablespoonfuls, mixed with equal quantity of bread and moistened with beef-juice. Or a soft-boiled egg mixed with stale bread-crumbs; a piece of rusk and 6 or 8 ounces of milk.

3 P.M.—Beef, chicken, or mutton broth, with rice or stale bread broken into the broth. Six ounces of milk, if wanted. Stale bread and butter or rusk and butter. Many children at the above age will take and digest apple sauce and prune pulp; when these are given, milk should be omitted.

6 P.M.—Two tablespoonfuls of cereal jelly in 8 ounces of milk; a piece of rusk. Stale bread and butter.

10 P.M.—A tablespoonful of cereal jelly in 8 ounces of milk.

15th TO 18th MONTH—FOUR MEALS DAILY

7 A.M.—Oatmeal, hominy, cornmeal, each cooked three hours the day before they are used. When the cooking is completed the cereal should be of the consistence of a thin paste. This is strained through a colander, which upon cooling will form a mass of jelly-like consistence. Of this give two or three tablespoonfuls, served with milk. 8 or 10 ounces of milk as a drink. Toast.

9 A.M.—The juice of one orange.

11 A.M.—A soft-boiled egg mixed with stale bread-crumbs, or one tablespoonful of scraped beef mixed with stale bread-crumbs and moistened with beef-juice. A drink of milk. Rusk or bran biscuit, or stale bread and butter.

3 P.M.—Mutton, chicken, or beef broth, with rice or junket or with stale bread broken in the broth. Custard, corn-starch, plain rice pudding, junket, stewed prunes, baked apple or apple sauce.

6 P.M.—Farina, cream of wheat, wheatena (cooked two hours). Give from one to three tablespoonfuls, served with milk. A drink of milk. Rusk or stale bread and butter.

18th TO 24th MONTH—FOUR MEALS DAILY

7 A.M.—Cornmeal, oatmeal, hominy (prepared as in the above schedule). Serve with milk, or with butter and salt. A soft-boiled egg every two or three days. Hashed chicken on toast occasionally. A drink of milk. Bran biscuit and butter, or stale bread and butter.

9 A.M.—The juice of one orange.

11 A.M.—Rare beef minced or scraped; the heart of a lamb chop, finely cut. Chicken. Spinach, asparagus tips, squash, strained stewed tomatoes, stewed carrots, mashed cauliflower. Baked apple or apple-sauce. Stale bread and butter. After the twenty-first month, baked potatoes and well-cooked chicken beans.

3 P.M.—Strained, beef or mutton broth, with rice or with stale bread broken into the broth. Custard, corn-starch, or plain rice pudding, junket, stewed prunes. Bran biscuit and butter or stale bread and butter.

6 P.M.—Farina, cream of wheat, wheatena (each cooked two hours). Give one to three tablespoonfuls, served with milk, or with butter and salt. A drink of milk. Rusk or stale bread and butter.

The following suggestions have proved to be helpful when properly used with bottle feedings, and they may be used in conjunction with Eagle Brand Condensed Milk.

Always pour the milk from the can into the spoon—allowing it to level itself but not run over. You can readily understand that by dipping the spoon into the can you get more than a level spoonful, because of the milk that would adhere to the bottom of the spoon. When you have added the milk to the water stir thoroughly. This is important. After opening, it is safe to leave the milk in the original can. We recommend that you cover the can tightly with an inverted cup, and keep it in a cool, clean place.

ORANGE JUICE

When baby is four months old, give one teaspoonful of strained orange juice, diluted with equal quantity of boiled water, once daily before feeding time. Gradually increase the amount until you are giving the strained juice of a half of an orange undiluted, once daily before feeding time. Orange juice may be continued until child is old enough to eat other fruits as well as oranges.

OATMEAL JELLY

When baby is five months old, add one teaspoonful of oatmeal jelly to each feeding. Gradually increase the amount until you are adding three tablespoonfuls of oatmeal jelly to each feeding. To make oatmeal jelly add four ounces of oatmeal to one pint of water; boil for three hours in a double boiler, and add enough water so when cooking is completed a thin paste will be formed. This while hot is forced through a strainer to remove coarser particles. When cold a semi-mass will be formed. Oatmeal jelly may be continued until child is old enough to eat well cooked whole cereals.

CONSTIPATION

Oatmeal water very often relieves this condition. To make oatmeal water add one heaping tablespoonful of oatmeal to one pint of water, and boil for three hours in a double boiler. This will make a little more than half a pint of thick gruel to which add one pint of water that has been boiled. After straining mixture through fine strainer, you should have a little more than a pint of whitish liquid. This should be used with each feeding instead of the plain boiled water. If you find that this makes bowels too loose, dilute oatmeal water with plain boiled water. Barley or rice water may be used instead of oatmeal water. If necessary two to three drops of plain cod-liver oil may be given twice daily added to the morning and night feedings.

DIARRHEA

Give nothing but plain boiled water for twenty-four hours. Then start feeding with barley water, or rice water, to which has been added a little salt to improve the taste. If these feedings are retained, and bowel movements lessened, small amounts of very weak regular feedings may be started and gradually increased according to baby's condition. If your baby does not improve after trying the above suggestions, consult your doctor at once.

BARLEY WATER

Obtain the very best barley flour. Add one rounded tablespoonful to one pint of water. Boil for thirty minutes, strain; then add enough water to make one pint.

RICE WATER

Add one tablespoonful of rice to a pint of water. Boil three hours, adding water from time to time so that you will have one pint of rice water at the end of the three hours.

LIME WATER

It is seldom necessary to use lime water with Eagle Brand Milk but should there be undigested particles of food in the bowel movements (which seem to be otherwise normal) or should there be vomiting of large curds shortly after feeding—or colic—it would be then advisable to try lime water. Obtain freshly prepared lime water at the Druggists, of which add 1 to 2 teaspoonfuls to each feeding.

COLIC OR VOMITING

These conditions may be due to over feeding, or constipation. Reduce quantity of food and use constipation formula, or lime water formula, as given above.

ROYALS WILL RECEIVE REAL SOCCER TEST

Esquimalt Will Give New Westminster's Sensational Team Great Fight

Royals Determined to Represent B.C. in Connaught Cup Play-offs

New Westminster will send its all-high football team to Victoria on Saturday in the hope of subduing the pesky Esquimalt eleven in the round before the semi-finals in the British Columbia section of the Connaught Cup play-offs. The game will be played at the Royal Athletic Park and the kick-off will be at 3 o'clock.

Although the soccer season has over-run its course the game on Saturday is arousing more interest than any other attraction that has been arranged for local football fans this year. Westminster United have been touted as the team to beat in the series and the way they have disposed of other clubs in the competition, including Ladysmith, substantiates all the claims which their supporters have made in their behalf.

LOCALS ARE STRONG

The Esquimalt team is a combination of the strength of the Esquimalt and Victoria West first division clubs and so far has shown good form in all games. At a meeting held last night the line-up was spread upon and it looks pretty good. The only change made in the team which defeated H.M.S. Durban last Saturday is at right full-back, where Joe Watt has been restored to his old position. Alex Hood, who has played two good games for Esquimalt at back, has been placed on the reserve list.

Tommy Edgar will be entrusted with the goal-keeping duties with Billy Allen pairing with Watt at back. The half-backs will be Don Hosmer, Johnny Peden and John Boyd. The forwards will be Cyril Conerton, Bob Stewart, John Watt, Scotty Robinson and Pat Mulcahy. Louie DeCosta, Darrell Mesher and Hood will be the reserves.

YOUNG AND FAST

The Westminster club is young and fast and plays a rare old combination game. They have secured players from different parts of the Province and are determined to represent British Columbia in the play-offs. They have tried desperately for several years but have always been poked out in the final by either the Victoria or Ladysmith. This year, they have said, they will make no mistake about it. They will find Esquimalt a tough club to get by and there will be a big crowd out to see the boys perform.

Broke 506 Birds Before Missing, Setting Record

Teumessah, Ont., June 14.—The record for consecutive hits on a registered target of the amateur trapshooting association has fallen before the steady accuracy of E. F. Woodward of Houston, champion of Texas.

Competing in the grand international trapshooting tournament here yesterday, Woodward ran a three-day string of shattered birds to 506 before he missed a straight-away target on his fifth shot of the day.

This phenomenal shooting enabled him to beat the record of 455 consecutive hits last year by Guy Dering, president of the A.T.A.

Woodward started his string on Saturday at Joliet, Ill., breaking 150 straight. He added 200 more on Monday and 156 yesterday.

The second day of the international tournament saw several champions uncrowned. The international amateur title went to S. M. Chotzer of Philadelphia, who made all but one of his 200 targets. Woodward and three others turned in scores of 198.

PICKARD WASN'T ABLE TO ATTEND THE LAST ATHLETIC MEET BUT SINCE HAS BEATEN DAVENPORTS RECORD

The coming Canadian track and field meet at Hamilton on June 29, for the Olympic trials is bringing out the best material the Dominion has. From every province athletes of national reputation are flocking to the Ambitious City. Hamilton has already established training camps for them and they are being filled up rapidly.

At the national meet held at Toronto Varsity last Fall the pole vault honors were carried off by John Davenport, a Hamiltonian with a leap of 11 ft. 6 in., far below the American record, which is likely to prove a world's record at the coming Olympic games. This record of 14 feet was established by Sabin W. Carr, of Yale University.

However, since the last Canadian meet there have been some noteworthy exhibitions by Victor Pickard, also of Hamilton. Pickard was ill during the last meet and wasn't able to attend. So he is something of a dark horse this year. Gordon Atchison, of Windsor, has unofficially trimmed Davenport's record by going over the bar at 12 feet. Atchison is still attending school in Windsor, and his coaches predict that he will be able to do 13 feet at the coming Hamilton meet. Such competition is bound to put Canada very much in the running in the pole vault event at Amsterdam.

Foley Fails To Defeat Champion But He Gives Fans Greatest Thrill

Vancouver Scrapper, After Being Outsmarted by Canzoneri for Four Rounds, Comes Back Fast and Makes Champion Look Like a Rube as He Missed Swings; Tony Finished Strongly and Won Verdict

Montreal, June 14.—Vic Foley, sturdy little scrapper from Vancouver, did not win his fight last night with Tony Canzoneri, world's featherweight champion, but he provided the champion with a sizzling battle that thrilled the 8,000 enthusiasts who crowded into the Montreal baseball park.

It was the first open-air bout of importance held here recently. Nothing was at stake in the ten-round fight as far as titles went. Canzoneri's greater experience and lasting powers won for him. The champion showed an edge in the first four rounds, scoring a knockdown which went to a count of three in the second round.

The opening bell in the fifth round found a change, when Foley opened up and Canzoneri absorbed a lot of licks. During the following four rounds Foley gave more than he took and had the champion swinging wildly at times.

However, the eighth found the New York battler himself again. Vic appeared suddenly to tire, while Tony was still fresh, and he held command through a series of vicious exchanges in the closing two rounds to win. The decision of the judges was unanimous in the New Yorker's favor.

FIGHT BY ROUNDS

Foley started on the offensive in the initial round, but did little damage against the defensive tactics of the champion. Just before the round ended Canzoneri took the attack and had the Vancouver lad backing away to avoid the champion's solid blows.

Shortly after the start of the second round Tony drove Vic's head back with a right to the chin. Foley kept bobbing in and was cheered by the crowd when he laced the champion with a series of lefts and rights. Canzoneri put Foley down for a count of three with a solid right to the chin. Foley came right back and was forcing the champion at the bell.

Canzoneri gave a wonderful display of footwork in the third round, and Foley found difficulty in reaching him. The champion again shook the western lad with a right cross to the head, but Foley came right back for more. Just before the bell rang Foley connected solidly with his right to the champion's chin, that made him look at the bell.

BATTLE TOE TO TOE

The fourth round saw both fighters battle toe to toe with honors about

NEW METHOD OF HITTING BALL FOUND IN U.S. TO REVOLUTIONIZE TENNIS

New York, June 14.—The New York Times says that a new method of hitting the ball in tennis has been discovered by a California professional, Dwight Douglas, by which the ball can be given unusual speed without the loss of control. Announcement of the discovery was made, the newspaper says, in a letter which is being circulated among the tennis clubs of this section by William Fischer, secretary of the Eastern Lawn Tennis Association.

According to Fischer, the discovery is of international importance and any nation which does not take up the new method will have to drop out of the race for honors. The new method has been communicated to the United States Davis Cup team to be used in its matches in Europe.

William Tilden, captain of the team, is also reported to have used it in the doubles match against Japan.

Bill Peden Tells of His Success In Modest Way

"Big Bill" Peden, one of the most modest athletes who ever lived, sent the following telegram to The Times this morning telling of his victories last night in the bicycle races at Toronto:

"Won pursuit race against A. Duff and Jack McDonald in about ten laps, also five-mile lap race against all riders except Lew Elder. Took fourth lap, then eighth lap and left finishing half lap ahead in ten minutes, forty seconds. Jim Davies arrives Thursday."

The Canadian Press, however, did not deal so modestly with Bill's triumphs and put the following story on the wire:

"Phenomenal riding by 'Torchy' Bill Peden, of Victoria, B.C., who gave the greatest exhibition of unspaced pedal-pushing ever seen at the Cyclo-drome, or for that matter, at any track in this section of the country, featured last night's meet at the Dundas Street 'drome.'

"Peden rode down Andy Duff and Jackie McDonald, who teamed against him in an unlimited pursuit race, taking the measure of his junior rivals inside of a mile and a half and followed up this remarkable feat by winning the five-mile lap race virtually by himself.

"Stars like Elton Mackay, Art Trempe and Andy Houting, finished far in the rear. His time was 10:50 for five miles."

M'SWAIN MAKES TENNIS FINALS

For Second Year in Succession Elliott Will Appear in 18-Year Class

Elliott McSwain will appear in the final of the under eighteen tennis championship of British Columbia for the second successive year as a result of his 7-5, 6-3 win over Dennis Nicol of Ocean Falls, yesterday. This was the feature match of yesterday's play in the junior tennis tourney now in progress at the Willows. The westerner gale, which swept across the courts, made good tennis impossible.

Nicol led 5-3 in the first set of his match with McSwain but the latter used his experience to pull him through just as he did against Bird on Tuesday. Nicol played a good game but made the mistake of taking the net on nearly every shot, a policy which was nullified by McSwain's clever netting shots and his own errors.

HANDBURYS IN RUNNING

R. M. Hanbury is still in the running for both the under sixteen and under fifteen titles while his brother meets Steve Jones to-day in the semi-final of the under eighteen event.

B. Taylor and Allison Mitchell remain their unfinished marathon to the girls' under fifteen event and Miss Taylor finally got home at 8-10, 7-5 and 6-4 in the only three-set decision of the day.

Prize-winners are promised in at least one match this afternoon when Joan List meets Helen Campbell.

Yesterday's results were as follows: Girls under fifteen—E. Black beat F. Jones, by default; B. Twigg beat F. Black, by default; B. Taylor beat A. Mitchell, 8-10, 7-5, 6-4; K. Wilson beat K. Parker, 6-2, 6-1; J. List beat A. Mitchell, 6-0, 6-0; J. List beat B. Slater, 6-1, 6-0.

Girls under eighteen—H. Campbell beat M. Little, 6-4, 6-0.

Boys under eighteen—McSwain beat Nicol, 7-5, 6-3.

TENNIS TALKS

You Need Backhand Shot To Have a Solid Defense

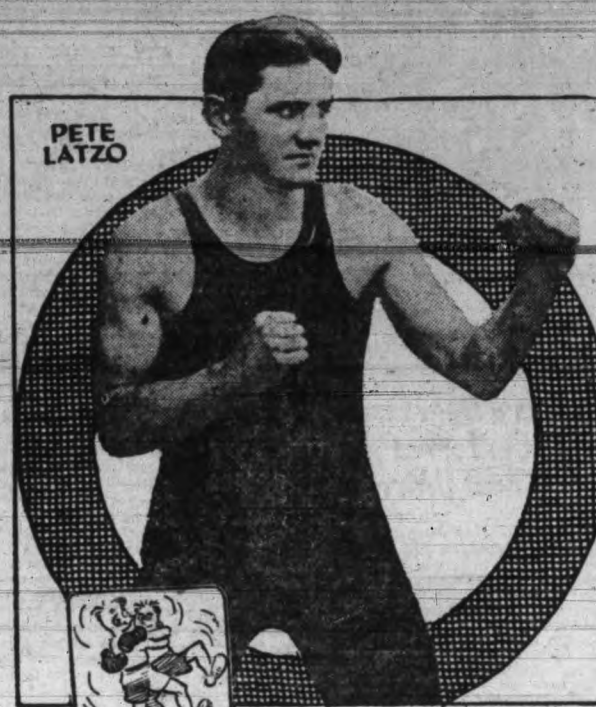

By GEORGE M. LOTT JR.

Let's grip for backhand drive. Note the position of the thumb. The difference between having a backhand drive and having only a backhand chop often is the difference between success and failure. By possessing a drive on the backhand a player presents a solid defence in comparison to the player who depends upon the chop.

The present champion, Rene Lacoste, has one of the best backhand drives in the tennis world and to it he owes a great deal of his success. Many of the near-champions of the past have failed to reach their goal because of their failure to learn a good backhand drive. Vincent Richards had only a chop on his backhand and, as a result, he could never let up his net attack for fear of his opponents pounding his backhand. The vulnerable spot in Howard Kinsey's game was his backhand. There is not much doubt but what James C. Anderson, the famous Australian, would have become world's champion if he had had a backhand drive instead of the little poke he called a backhand.

The player who develops a drive from his backhand side will soon find himself rising above his partners.

COMING BACK STRONG

PETE LATZO

Three years ago a young miner crawled out of the pits at Scranton, Pa., and went into the ring and took the welterweight title away from Micky Walker. He fought a few good fights and then lost his crown to Joe Dundee. He passed out of the ring picture for a time but ten days ago attempted a comeback in the light heavyweight field, although only 160 pounds, with a heavy stomach. He surprised the fight world by giving Tommy Loughran, light heavyweight champion, a trimming for ten rounds.

But began to tire in the last five rounds and Loughran gained the decision. Last night he tackled the hardest hitter outside the heavyweights ranks when he met Leo Lomski. It only took five rounds for Latzo to get Lomski in such a state that he nearly had the Aberdeen boy out in the following round. A foul blow was all that saved Lomski. Latzo will be a big attraction this summer.

Lato, By Victory Over Lomski, Due For Another Shot At Walker's Title

Likely to Replace Lomski Against Walker on July 4 in Battle for Middleweight Crown; Pudgy Pete Springs Big Surprise by Defeating Lomski; Nearly Had Him Out When Westerner Committed a Foul

New York, June 14.—Victory over a light heavyweight, Leo Lomski, the "smiling assassin" from Aberdeen, Wash., appeared to-day to have clinched for Pete Latzo, former welterweight champion, another shot at his arch-rival, Micky Walker, king of middleweights. Reeling about the ring under a barrage of left and right hooks that seemed about to finish him at any moment, Lomski drove a full right deep into Latzo's groin, in the sixth round of their ten-round bout at Ebbetts Field last night and was promptly disqualified for fouling. Lomski was scheduled to battle Walker in a non-title ten-round bout in the National League ball park July 4.

Two years ago Latzo took the welterweight crown from Walker and always has contended that the toy building from Rumson, N.J., was one man he always could lick. Latzo probably will attempt to make the light heavyweight limit of 160 pounds and substitute for Lomski in the holiday battle.

FOUGHT GREAT BATTLE

Lato scaled 170 pounds for his match with Lomski last night and fought one of the greatest battles of his career.

After the first two rounds, during which Lomski's famed right hand dug deep into the Scranton miner's body, Pete battered Leo's head with curling left and right hooks and had him at his mercy when the low blow was struck. The 18,000 fans gathered at the ball park howled Lomski out of the ring in derision after the low blow, apparently unanimous in their belief that the western star, tottering on the verge of a knockout, had taken the "easiest way out."

The foul, which calls for automatic suspension under the New York Athletic commission rules, probably will cost Lomski a return bout with Tommy Loughran, light heavyweight champion.

NATURAL SLUGGER

It was a discouraging ending to one of the fastest and most exciting clashes of natural slugs New York has seen in many a day. The end came after Latzo, the under dog, fighting like a man possessed, had battered Lomski to the verge of a knockout with a series of smashing volleys to the head.

Lato's showing against the man who knocked Tommy Loughran down twice last winter in a title match was little short of amazing. Only two weeks ago Pudgy Pete, heavy about the body, lost a vicious fifteen-round to Loughran by a narrow margin. Last night Latzo showed immense improvement in condition. He was faster, more aggressive and his slugging was swift to the head and body were deadly accurate.

The tall Pole from the land of the Douglas fir was a mark for Latzo's sweeping left hand after the second round. Only in the second round did Lomski's powerful right hand hurt Latzo to any extent.

FIRST CLAIM OF FOUL

During a wild exciting third round, when the battlers stood head to head and smashed full swings to head and body, Latzo made his first claim of foul. Again in the fifth round, in the

No Signs of Reds Ckling Yet; Hornsby Hits Bat But His Team Lose

The Cincinnati host came to the easier life of Philadelphia try with three Giant scalps to show; four games at the Polo grounds, by took yesterday's game 3-3 after tenning. The Phillies ended the sp of the Pittsburgh Pirates by rallying against Burleigh Grimes in the ninth three runs, which won 4-3.

YANKS STILL WINNING

The American League situation remained much the same. The Yanks outlasted the White Sox to 4-4 in a game notable for its lack home runs.

Old Jack Quinn flashed a into form at Detroit and the Athletics won easily 12-8.

Washington rallied in the eighth at Cleveland but fell just short enough to enable the Indians to 4-0 on some good pitching by Sydn.

The St. Louis Browns had to ten innings, to come out ahead the Boston Red Sox 9 to 8 in a game marked by six home runs. They were evenly divided between the clubs. Yesterday results were: even. Cannonieri caught Foley going away and belted him with hard blows to the stomach. Foley's left eye showed a small cut over it as he took his corner at the bell.

Foley was all over the champion in the fifth round. Four times Cannonieri talked into Foley's left. The Vancouver last followed with a series of punches that sent the New York man back on his heels. Foley was still jabbing away when the bell rang.

The champion opened up in the sixth round. He took severe punishment to get into close quarters, but rocked Foley with a left to the ribs. As Tony attempted to get into close quarters, Foley dug in lefts to the body.

TOOK SIX TO LAND ONE

Both fighters stood in the middle of the ring at the start of the seventh and slugged. Cannonieri missed badly time and again. Foley continued his attack on the champion's body and head. The New Yorker was taking half a dozen lefts to the head to land one good blow.

Foley made the champion miss frequently in the eighth round and showed the titleholder with left and rights. The crowd cheered the Vancouver lad to a man as he waded into the champion and punished him.

Cannonieri clinched at the start of the ninth round. Foley connected with a left to the plexus and followed with a right to the chin. Foley's eye, which the champion had been pecking at since the fourth round, started to close. Sensing an advantage Cannonieri uncorked a vicious attack, but the Vancouver boy never flinched.

The western fighter was plainly tired as he came up for the final round, but he continued to stand up with the titleholder. Cannonieri tore in to the faltering Foley. The New York fighter was quite fresh, but dogged Foley traded punches with him willingly and the fans roared their approval of the thrilling finish.

In the ten-round semi-final, Joe Trabon, Denver lightweight, was given the decision over George Chabot of Montreal. Trabon scaled 134½ and Chabot 137.

Bert Brown, Montreal, was awarded the decision over Bobby Garcia of Baltimore in a ten-round preliminary. Garcia weighed 137½ and Brown 129½.

In the second preliminary Benny Schwartz of Baltimore, stable mate of Tony Cannonieri, got the decision over Tommy Ryan of Buffalo. Schwartz tipped the beam at 117½ and Ryan entered the ring at 120½.

midst of another wild moment. Pudgy dropped to one knee from a low punch.

HOW ABOUT A ROLLICKING ROUND OF RUMMY?

Bobby Jones On Golf

Spoon a Neglected But Still Very Useful Club

For some reason, present-day golfers seem to overlook to a great extent the possibilities of the once popular spoon. Possibly that tendency may be due partly to the fact that the increased range of the ball has brought most of the second shots within range of the mid-distance irons, but I do not think that is all of the reason. I know many players who will always extend themselves with the iron rather than resort to the wood. It seems to be a matter of pride with them that they will not allow others to think that they must use a wood club on such and such a hole.

The wood clubs were more popular in the old days probably because the old "guttie" was so hard and unyielding that the shock it gave to the iron blade more than offset the player's desire to "be credited with more power" than he possessed. It must have been a relief then to take out the spoon or brassie and "know that one's fingers" would not be cracked by the slightest mishit.

Those who insist upon employing an iron to do the work of the spoon lose sight of the real object of the game. They forget that the successful execution of the shot, and not with what club it was done, is what counts. It does not matter if A reaches number fifteen once with a drive and mid-iron and measures up the hole five times, if B is always close with a drive and spoon or brassie.

SOFTBALL

Ladies' Sample Shoe Store softballers copped the championship of the first half of the "D" section of the City League last night when they defeated Albion Stars 25-5. The shoe store team has not been defeated once this season.

In the other game Oak Bay United had no trouble defeating the Mets by a 22-2 score.

Games scheduled to-night are as follows:

Wilson Bros. vs. Royals at Central Park, lower diamond. Umpire, R. Butler. Canadian Scottish vs. Y.M.I. at Central Park, Queen's and Quadra. Umpire, B. Chisholm.

Y.M.C.A. vs. Hudson's Bay, at Central Park, upper diamond. Umpire, E. Stock. The Astors Club defeated Pimbley & Ritchie by 12-10 in a closely contested game.

So invariably in that case I employ a spoon, playing the shot with a slight cut to get it up quickly. Again, I do not like to play a full iron shot with the wind off my right, because I know that I am apt to hook if I do. That is the place for a spured spoon shot fading a bit into the wind for control.

LOFT OF CLUB WILL ELEVATE BALL Similarly, as a substitute for the brassie, the spoon works equally well. Suppose we need a full shot to the green and the wind is blowing across from left to right and the lie is close. In getting the ball up with the straight-faced brassie, the almost necessary result is a slicing spin which exaggerated by the wind may carry the ball many yards off the line. But the loft of the spoon will elevate the ball without need of the spin and we can hit hard and confidently straight for the objective.

And to put the spoon to these uses is within the capabilities of even the ordinary player. The modifications in either direction are so slight that to make them it is only necessary to know what they are. No man who will get a spoon and use it within reasonable limits will ever allow himself to be again without one. (Copyright 1928, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

POLICE SEE NEW WAY TO FIND CRIME

M. Langsner, Austrian Psychologist, Carries Out
Uncanny Demonstration

Victoria police officers got an idea of just how crime may be detected through mental telepathy yesterday afternoon when Maximilian A. Langsner, M.L.L.C., of Vienna, Austria, noted psychologist, guided by the thoughts of a person sitting alongside him in a motor car located three objects hidden in the city.

This experiment witnessed by police officers of Victoria, Oak Bay, Esquimalt and Saanich was an experiment to prove the use of mental telepathy in police work.

Yesterday morning members of the Provincial and Royal Canadian Mounted Police and two members of the local press purloined certain articles and cached them in an empty house on Menzies Street. Two of the articles were taken to an upstairs room and placed in an old bathtub. The third was hidden in a fireplace.

In the afternoon members of the various police forces gathered at provincial police headquarters. Mr. Langsner took the Colonel's representative for his witness. Asking him several questions he got into a motor car and taking the driving wheel the psychologist had his witness sit along side him. The witness kept his hand on the driver's wrist, which was covered with a handkerchief, for physical contact.

Mr. Langsner asked the witness to concentrate on the direction he wished the driver to go. Not a single word passed between the driver and his witness during the drive. Sitting in the back seat of the car were Chief of Police Acreman of Esquimalt and Chief of Police Symes of Oak Bay, who witnessed all the proceedings.

For fifteen minutes Mr. Langsner drove the car around the vicinity of the house where the goods were cached. Then he took the automobile to the right house and stopped. He later stated he was guided to the place solely by the thoughts of his witness.

Taking his witness with him Mr. Langsner located the articles in the upper room, but it took him considerable time to find the vase located in the rear.

During the time he was searching for the articles Mr. Langsner appeared to be under a great mental strain which immediately relaxed after he had been successful in his search.

Proceeding back to provincial police headquarters Mr. Langsner gave a demonstration of hypnotism on two young rosters. Taking them in either hand he placed them down on the table where they remained like statues until released from the unusual sleep. Mr. Langsner was heartily thanked for his demonstration by Col. J. H. McMullen, superintendent of the British Columbia police.

A graduate of the Nancy School of Psychological Research Mr. Langsner is on a tour around the world, accompanied by his wife, who joined him in Java nearly a year ago. He has spent nearly six years of adventurous traveling throughout the world gathering material for a book which he will write, entitled "The World Through My Eyes." He speaks fourteen languages, has studied in most of Europe's universities and is a writer on several scientific books.

Mr. Langsner returned to Vancouver last night where he will remain for some time.

Sudden Death At Cumberland

INSURANCE MEN ARE ENCOURAGED

S. W. Shepard Gives Inspiring Address to Underwriters

That there is an abundance of opportunities for success in the life insurance business, was convincingly proved by S. W. Shepard, head superintendent of the British Columbia Life Insurance Association at the dinner meeting of the Victoria and Island Underwriters held in the Chamber of Commerce dining-room last night.

"I do not propose to tell you how to sell life insurance," the speaker said, "but to encourage you to keep working in the longor-producing Summer-time. In his address he gave many enlightening examples of how men had attained success by persistent hard work, and far-sighted action.

"Do not let yourselves slide now that the weather is balmy, but get out and do your work as usual," he advised the present. "No one is going to do your work for you. It is entirely up to you to make the best of your chances."

"But if you are more successful than others, never be too busy to lend a hand to fellows less fortunate than you. Give them all the assistance you can. It is only as strong as the weakest link. Do not be the weak link in your association and when you have finished your task in a company you will be able to rest with an easy conscience sure of the fact that you have never let your association down," he concluded.

Alex. Marshall, district superintendent of the Prudential, presided over the meeting. George Dyson, the treasurer gave his report.

Following the address, George Guy, who was accompanied by Mr. Schofield, on behalf of the underwriters, N. Haugh moved a vote of thanks to the speaker for his inspiring talk. Fred McGregor seconded the vote and spoke of the fine work done by Mr. Shepard in this province.

The board was also thanked by the City Council in the same connection.

Closer settlement of Keating district having created congestion in the school, the Saanich School Board last night decided to transport pupils from Keating to Saanichton, as a temporary provision. West Saanich school was stated to be filled to capacity, and the board foresaw early need of construction of a consolidated school to serve northern Saanich. Members of the board believed that erection of an eight-roomed school, to provide two years of high school tuition, would be advisable, and favored preparation of a scheme in time for inclusion in next year's estimates.

Two Island Timber Companies Working Out Compromise in Big Dispute

No final settlement has been reached yet in the dispute between the Campbell River Timber Company and Biedel, Welsh and Stewart interests over the location of a logging railway on the east coast of Vancouver Island.

As announced when an inquiry into the matter before the Government was adjourned some time ago, the two companies are seeking to work out a compromise route for the proposed line, but no final location has been filed with the Railway Department. It is expected, however, the two concerns will agree on a route finally and ask the Railway Department to approve it.

The compromise route runs from the holdings of the Campbell River Timber Company to the holdings of Biedel, Welsh and Stewart interests and south of their present green timber holdings. Originally the Campbell River Timber Company objected to this location as originally approved by the Government, but with some changes it may agree to adopt it, according to information received here.

ROTARY CLUB VISITS SIDNEY

Members View Experimental Farm After Luncheon Entertainment

The Rotary Club to-day held its weekly luncheon at the Dominion Experimental Farm at Sidney, being the guests of Superintendent E. M. Straight.

Percy Marchant expressed the thanks of the Rotarians to Superintendent Straight and the ladies for their splendid hospitality. Frank Doherty seconded the motion of appreciation, remarking upon the popularity Mr. Straight as shown by their co-operation.

Presenting the vote of thanks James Fletcher, president, said the visit was an experiment which he hoped would be repeated. Mr. Straight remarked that the luncheon was the gift of the Experimental Farm to the Rotary Club. The luncheon closed with cheers for the ladies.

NO POLITICS IN BRIDGE SCHEME

Quesnel Structure Being Pushed Ahead as Rapidly as Possible

Reports from Quesnel, alleging that the Provincial Government is withholding construction of the new Quesnel Bridge for political reasons were flatly repudiated by Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Minister of Public Works, to-day. Contrary to the reports, the bridge is under way now, both on the bridge site and in Vancouver, where its huge wooden superstructure is being built and treated with creosote for preserving purposes, Dr. Sutherland stated.

"Naturally it is impossible to start the installation of the bridge until the tender is in, but," he said, "the Minister said, 'but' awarded the contract early so that the superstructure could be built in sections ready for use when the permits are issued. The idea that the Government is deliberately delaying the project for any motive whatever is absolutely false."

Great Fruit Crop Coming For B.C.

The Okanagan is in for a great fruit crop this year, according to R. H. MacDonald of Vernon, vice-president of the B.C. Fruit Growers, who spoke at Victoria yesterday to sponsor the protest of the fruit interests against the proposed increase in export rates on fruit shipments.

"The only trouble is that we in the interior will soon be facing, with this big crop on our hands, the same situation which some berry growers are complaining of here, because imports of fruit to the Prairies from elsewhere are not shut off so as to give the B.C. producer control of his market there," Mr. MacDonald said.

"I am a staunch Conservative, but I must, in all fairness, say that our Minister of Agriculture, the Hon. E. D. Barrow, is one of the most conscientious and sincere men that we have had in public life and a man who has been working earnestly and intelligently for the advancement of the interests of the British Columbia agriculturists."

BIRDS' ORIGIN

The origin of birds goes far back into the story of the world, when scaly reptiles developed wings. They were the first creatures to soar from the land and make the air their own. We have the remains of the Archaeopteryx, the first bird, on which to base our understanding. It was a bird about the size of a crow, with many teeth and the tail of a lizard.

Discovery in America has brought to light remains of the Pterodactyl that lived and died on the slopes of the Rocky Mountains.

Birds were the first of the backboneed creatures to build homes. They weave nests that are marvels of neatness, beauty and efficiency.

Parent birds are as devoted in their care of the eggs as a lioness is of her cubs. A sitting hen often remains steadfast at her post when the nest is invaded. Birds, when born, are as helpless as a human babe. To feed them the parents must work almost to exhaustion, flying mile after mile in search of choice morsels for their downy little children. To-morrow's Horoscope

FRIDAY, JUNE 15, 1928

Astrologers read this as an important day in planetary direction, the faint influences being balanced between good and bad.

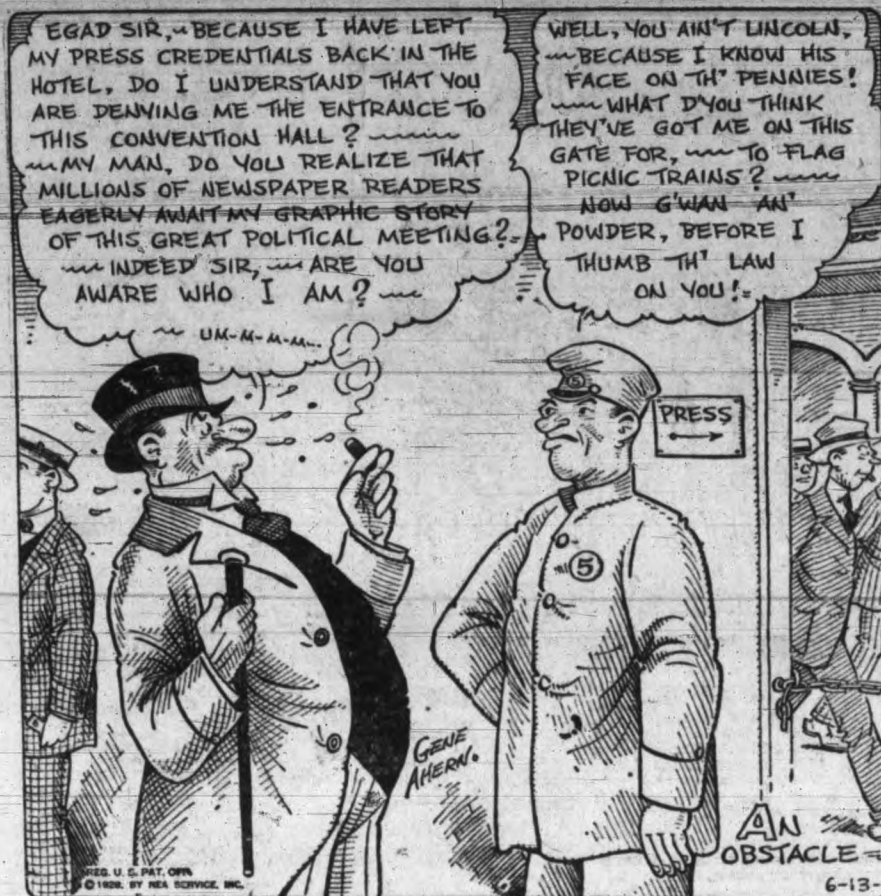

The morning is most favorable for women who should be equally lucky in domestic and in public activities. The day should be an auspicious one for entertaining friends and for making the home beautiful. Engagements to marry contracted under this direction of the stars may be ill-advised, but nevertheless productive of great happiness.

Great storms and more floods are prognosticated for the summer, which will be marked by unusual demonstration on the part of nature. The planets give encouragement to day to engineers, architects and builders. Foreign countries will employ many Canadians. It is foretold. Young graduates who begin careers at this time should be most lucky for the planets presage for them wide fields of usefulness. The total eclipse of June 3 is again announced as presaging the growth of military power. The seeds announce that in the next three decades the young will reveal remarkable mental gifts and will attain remarkable success, for they belong to the new era in which they are not bound to the earth, but instead belong to the air. Persons whose birthdate it is may expect much joy through friends in the coming year. Children born on this day probably will succeed without aid, but they may suffer through the faults of others. (Copyright, 1928)

CHURCH HEADS ARE TO MEET IN OTTAWA IN 1929

Canadian Presbyterian General Assembly Completes Work at Regina Sessions

Number of Recommendations By Board of Administration Given Approval

Regina, June 14.—After deliberating here for a week on the varied activities of the church at home and abroad, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada last night brought its 122nd session to a close.

The 1929 sessions will be held in Ottawa early in June.

The final day was productive of orderly progress, although a number of overtures submitted by various presbyteries were tabled or referred to central boards for study and further report.

The chief accomplishment emerging from the final session was the reconciliation of the views on the issue of church government. The impasse was ultimately bridged by the adoption of a motion offered by Rev. W. Barclay Hamilton, Ont., calling for the creation of a conciliation committee composed of twenty members and elders.

TO HOLD CONFERENCE

That body reported yesterday that a unanimous and amicable settlement had been reached and submitted the following recommendations to the commissioners:

1. That eight members be added to the board of administration, each being a convener of the general interests committee of his own synod, but not at the same time a member of the spending boards.

2. That the number of the board be increased accordingly.

3. Reference of the balance of the proposed plan of reorganization to a conference of the administration board, the committee on reorganization and two representatives from each of the main boards of the church.

4. That the results of this conference be reported upon at the next General Assembly.

The compromise agreement was accorded the unanimous approval of the assembly.

In reporting on behalf of the compromise committee, Rev. Dr. G. Macbeth of Vancouver referred to the possibility of the press of the country placing a misconception upon the differences of opinion which had developed on the floor of the assembly with respect to this question.

"There is no possibility of a split in our church, nor was it even contemplated by any of our ministers and elders," Dr. Macbeth declared amid an outburst of applause.

The church had passed through too many trials to permit the seed of discord again to find root in its ranks, he said.

BUDGET APPROVE

The Assembly gave unanimous assent to the following list of recommendations by the board of administration: That the General Assembly approve of the church budget of $850,000, including a sum of $60,000 for emergency expenses and $250,000 for working capital.

All congregations, wherever possible, should forward their budget contributions to the treasurer either monthly or quarterly.

That the General Assembly request all congregations to make use of the duplex envelope system, and also have an "every person a canvasser" for both maintenance and budget annually.

TO NAME COMMITTEES

That the General Assembly approve and recommend to all congregations of the church the appointment of missionary or budget committees, representative of the whole congregation, which shall make the question of the budget and education and information their special responsibility.

Wherever possible each congregation should have a special service at which the whole work of the church should be placed before the people and the budget requirements to permit the carrying on of this work be presented.

That all congregations be urged to give their best efforts to the support of the work of the church.

That the General Assembly direct all the boards of the church to submit their estimates for the work of their several departments at least ten days prior to the meeting of the board of administration for the preparation of the budget, and that the boards be directed to incur no further obligations, beyond those approved for the previous year, until such time as the board of administration shall have approved them.

PENSION FUND

That future payments to the pension fund from budget revenue be the amount required to supplement the income from investments (about $18,000) and that payments to the pension fund shall be a first charge on the budget revenue of the church.

An overture from the Synod of British Columbia asking that steps be taken to build suitable student residence with class rooms on a three-acre site on the grounds of the University of British Columbia and the establishment of a summer school in theology was referred to the boards of education and administration for favorable consideration.

The resignation of Rev. W. A. Cameron as assistant secretary of the board of missions was accepted with regret.

Langford

Langford, June 13.—The recently opened auto camp at Langford Lake is quickly becoming popular with the motoring public, the following have registered at the camp recently: Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Jenner, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Hilber, Kelowna, B.C.; A. H. Johnson and party, San Diego, Cal.; W. R. Cook, Seattle; W. R. Dunn and family, Courtenay; J. Derby, Duncan.

It is hoped to hold a basket picnic on Friday, June 29 at the Ocean Beach Lagoon. Towards the latter sports fund are being received by the teachers, Mrs. P. Welsh and Miss L. Peacey.

The Wilfred Lumber Company softball team are playing the Colwood team Thursday evening on the Goldstream Road diamond. While at Victoria West a good game is expected between Langford and Marigold teams.

The Axton girls from Victoria beat the Langford girls by 20 runs to 6 on the Goldstream Road ground Monday night. T. Forbes was the referee.

Colwood

Colwood, June 12.—The third quarterly meeting of the council of the Esquimalt Rural Nursing Service was held Monday evening in Colwood.

During the course of the evening the secretary presented the financial report which showed the finances of the nursing service to be in excellent condition.

In connection with the establishment of the pre-school clinic the secretary reported progress and the outlook was favorable for its operation in the near future.

The dental examinations are now in operation in all the schools.

The nurse in charge was granted a month's holiday. During her absence Mrs. Stuart Hutchison will substitute.

A directors' meeting preceded the council meeting, and the following report from nurse in charge was presented to the directors for the month of May: Schools visited, Colwood, Albert Head, Langford, Luxton and Happy Valley; attended yearly inspection of all school children in health districts; 10 health talks given; 8 major accidents; 8 children taken to dentist; 26 home-school visits; 43 nursing visits; 28 child welfare visits; 40 miscellaneous visits; 29 co-operative; 15 roadside consultations; 2 trips to hospital; 31 telephone consultations; 4 pre-natal visits.

AVIATION PICTURE, "THE LONE EAGLE," NOW AT COLUMBIA

"The Lone Eagle," a Universal-Jewel production, featuring Raymond Keese and Barbara Kent, with a splendid supporting cast of screen favorites, opens at the Columbia Theatre to-day.

A screen adaptation of Lieutenant Ralph Blanchard's thrilling story of aviators during the World War, "The Lone Eagle" is a picture that has attracted particular interest throughout the country because of the vividness with which it portrays the actual happenings of the intrepid fliers during the fevered war period.

The direction is by Emory Johnson, who made "The Fourth Commandment," now establishing box office records wherever shown. According to advance notices, "The Lone Eagle" surpasses even that sterling picture in appeal and heart interest.

STARTLING FILM OF NEW YORK LIFE NOW AT VARIETY

The underworld and the subway bear as close a relationship to each other as the lower-surface terminology suggests, if one is to judge from the startling entanglement of crookdom and subway trains which enmeshes Monte Blue in his latest starring vehicle, "Wolf's Clothing," now showing at the Variety Theatre.

The star's adventures in this stirring Arthur Somers Roche story of a country youth who seeks fortune and romance in New York encompasses a medley of surprising developments which progress logically from one breathtaking incident to another in rapid succession. As an imaginative but unassuming youth in the unromantic role of a subway guard, Monte Blue finds his fortunes with those of a maniac and a charming woman. To-day at the Variety Theatre.

BRITISH PICTURE AT COLISEUM IS BIG DRAWING CARD

The big British production showing at the Coliseum Theatre this week is drawing large crowds to each performance. It is entitled "Land of Hope and Glory," based on Sir Edward Elgar's anthem of empire. The picture has an all English cast, and was produced in England. The story deals with five sons who are sent out into the different dominions to seek their living. One of the sons invents an aeroplane, another a motor car, another a submarine, another a tank, and another a battleship. The picture is a masterpiece of technical skill and dramatic power.

On Saturday "Brownie Owl" (Miss F. Eagle) and "Tawny Owl" (Miss Lois Wilson) took all the "Brownies" for a most enjoyable picnic and swim at Vesuvius Bay. The 1st Salt Spring Island and Company of Girl Guides went for a picnic.

NOTED FOREADOR INSTRUCTS STAR IN DOMINION FILM

Victor McLaglen, playing Captain Flagg in the screen version of "What Price Glory," has turned foreador in the Fox production, "Loves of Carmen," now at the Dominion Theatre. Incidentally, this is the second version of "Carmen" to be made by Raoul Walsh.

McLaglen visited Mexico City with Director Walsh, where they witnessed exhibitions of the Spanish pastime to get realistic action into the picture. Walsh brought back to Hollywood Rafael Valverde, noted foreador of Spain and Mexico, to give McLaglen daily lessons in the gentle art of spearing bulls.

Director Walsh shows the gypsy cigarette girl as she actually was and not as the tinsel personality of the opera. Dolores Del Rio, who portrayed "Carmen" so convincingly in "What Price Glory," plays the title role with exceptional ability.

"LES MISERABLES" IS REGARDED AS HUGO'S GREATEST

The new-version of "Les Miserables," now at the Capitol Theatre, recently purchased by Universal, proves to be one of the most stupendous films ever shown.

"Les Miserables" is regarded by many people as by far the greatest work by Victor Hugo, and the film, according to Le Malin, "pours out the intense, generally wide charity, vehement pity and magnificent revolt against 'social damnation' all that makes Victor Hugo's novel masterpiece."

On the stage at the Capitol Theatre this week are Elsie Broche, a soprano soloist, in song selections, Fred Gannon, the musical tramp, in a novelty presentation, and the Cook Sisters, star dancers, musicians and soloists from the Fanchon and Marco's great "Russian Revue" innovations. The Cook Sisters will offer a special singing, dancing and instrumental presentation. Harold Bechtel, the Singing M.C., and the Capitol Orchestra will complete the fine bill of vaudeville that will be offered for Capitol patrons this week.

MATHESON LANG'S "CHINESE BUNGALOW"

It is not often that a dramatic presentation that has won signal success on the stage is able to maintain the same high standard of art when thrown upon the screen. "The Chinese Bungalow" which will be presented next week at the Coliseum is an exception. Nothing is lost of the dramatic force of this well-known play in the film version. Indeed, in some respects the power of the presentation is heightened, through the latitude that is given the camera for the production of scenic effects. The story of the play is already familiar to most people, and it is rigidly adhered to in the picture, no extraneous effects being permitted.

Matheson Lang takes the chief role of Yuan Sing, the wealthy Chinese, whose high code of honor might well put the man of the Western world to shame. Mr. Lang's splendid power of characterization loses nothing on the screen. He is the embodiment of the debonair, courteous Chinese, familiar to those who have seen him in this role on the stage.

Lita Grey's Mother Is Given Divorce

Los Angeles, June 14.—A divorce decree was granted to Mrs. Lillian P. Spicer, mother of Charlie Chaplin's divorced wife, Lita Grey Chaplin, in superior court here yesterday. Mrs. Spicer charged her husband, Robert Spicer, with desertion, which she testified occurred in January, 1924, after a temporary separation of three months.

Spicer was Mrs. Spicer's third husband.

Ganges

Ganges, June 14.—The ladies of St. Mark's Guild held a most successful garden party at "Barnesbury," home of Mrs. Norman Wilson, Friday afternoon, and was formerly opened by Rev. Flinton. Mrs. McFadden and Mrs. Parson were in charge of the fancywork; Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Robinson, the home cooking; Mrs. Stacey, ice cream; Mrs. Wilson, in charge of the putting green; and won by Mrs. Norris, Mrs. Gerald Young, in charge of the "smelling" contest, and Mrs. G. C. Mout and Mrs. William Mount tied on this; candy, Mrs. Walter Norton; tea, by Mrs. Bess and Mrs. Goodrich, assisting were the Misses Cunningham, Mrs. Harry Noon, Mrs. Dechurst and Mrs. Goodrich. The weight of a fruit cake was guessed and won by Mrs. Rowan. About $56 was made and they wish to think all who helped to make the affair such a success.

On Saturday "Brownie Owl" (Miss F. Eagle) and "Tawny Owl" (Miss Lois Wilson) took all the "Brownies" for a most enjoyable picnic and swim at Vesuvius Bay. The 1st Salt Spring Island and Company of Girl Guides went for a picnic.
